Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843, Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium. The directors are required to be peculiarly interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.
THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST.

THE MADISON MUTUAL,
LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other company, and is not prepared to lose one's own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fire losses occur upon farm property, and consequently, if not prepared to take risks upon such property, the company all such property is rejected positively, by LETTING THEM ALONE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, although doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The best of references given as to the responsibility of the company.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICE.
75 Cents to $5.00.

MR. J. E. POWERS, lately from Troy, (N. Y.) respectfully informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of this place and vicinity that he has made a permanent location in Janesville, and has taken rooms over ELLIS'S JEWELRY STORE, where he is prepared to take Daguerreotype Likenesses.

Either single or in groups, not to be surpassed in Wisconsin. Miniatures taken in as good style as the Art can produce, having all the improved chemicals of the age, which, together with the advantages of a superior light, enable him to give a clear, bold and life-like picture.

Miniatures taken in all weathers equally well, and warranted not to fade in the least, from 75 cents to $1. Pictures taken over for 50 cents.

Lockets and fancy cases of all styles furnished to order, and also miniatures in Pin and Bracelets.

Miniatures of sick or diseased persons taken at their residences if required.

Pictures of Children of any age correctly taken at very low rates.

His Room will be open from 7 A. M. to 5 P. M., and he invites all those that wish to see GOOD Pictures, to call and examine his Specimens, whether they wish likenesses or not.

Among these specimens are a miniature of Henry Clay, John P. Hale, James Lind and General Tom Thumb.

Instructions given in the art on reasonable terms.

The Daily Gazette.

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN.
FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 28, 1854.

Out of thirteen numbers of the Janesville Daily Gazette, now published, we have received three! Where is the fault—in the publishers or the mails?—Madison Journal.

In neither. We had made special arrangement to send our paper to Madison by the cars daily, and the above notices together with a letter received at the same time, from one of our subscribers at Madison, is the first hint we have had that they were not regularly and promptly delivered. We adopted this method and were at some trouble and expense in doing so, in order to serve our friends daily, instead of tri-weekly as we should have to if dependent upon the mail for carrying them. We regret that the arrangement has proved a failure, and that we shall have to resort to the slow means provided by the post office department in future. Our contemporary hereafter will receive our paper as we do his, two at a time but twice a week.

MORE IMPROVEMENT IN THE MAILS.—The eastern mail which leaves this city at half past ten in the forenoon, now remains in the Beloit post office over night, not reaching Chicago till the next day, and of course being delayed one day in arriving at its destination. A nice arrangement!

RAILROAD FREIGHTS.—The Chicago Tribune states that the Galena and Chicago railroad company have determined to advance the rate of transporting lumber, on its road, ten per cent, over the present charges, the advance to take effect on the first proximo.

The company has also issued an order that no more grain be shipped, in bulk, at any of the points along the road, except it be consigned to parties who have elevators convenient for receiving direct from the cars. This will force dealers to forward in bags.

THE MADISON DAILY ARGUS.—This paper comes to us enlarged and in an entire new dress. We wish its politics were as good as its typography, for in the latter respect it is not surpassed in the state. For its workmanlike appearance it acknowledges its indebtedness to Mr. F. B. Ward, the foreman of the office, and Mr. W. may well be proud of such a specimen of his labor. Our city printers must look out, or their country competitors will run away with the honors of the profession.

A villain calling himself McMurray, came into the village about two weeks since and took board at one of our principal hotels. He represented himself as having just returned from California, with gold in abundance. On one day last week he was married to a young lady who he had never seen until within the period of his present visit to the village, and on Saturday two officers of justice from Lansingburg got upon his track and arrested him for theft and forgery. Last evening he took his departure for a more northern climate, with some very uncomfortable looking bracelets upon his wrists. This is what may be called doing things in a hurry.—Pekin Republican.

We don't know which in this, and similar instances, is the most apparent, the villany of the man or the folly of the woman. Both deserve punishment, and sympathy on either would be thrown away.

FOUR JURORS INDICTED FOR PERJURY.—The Louisville Courier is informed upon good authority, that the grand jury of Hardin county has indicted four of the notorious persons who composed the Ward jury, on a charge of perjury.—The names of only two could be ascertained, and these were McIntire and Edson.

The stone for McAdams Main street are now being hauled upon it. Every body is glad to see the improvement go on.

The vote in Whitewater last Tuesday upon taking stock in the Central railroad was 117 in favor and 37 against.

SALE OF STOCKS.—The stocks and bonds, hypothecated by the Schuylers with Cornelius Vanderbilt, esq., for monies advanced by the latter, were sold at auction in Wall street, on Thursday last. Under the influence of the prevailing panic as to railroad securities, the prices realized were very low. Among the bonds sold were $15,000, 7 per cent. of the Mineral Point railroad at 20.

The only daughter of ex-president Fillmore died of cholera on the morning of the 26th inst., at the village of Aurora, about twenty miles from Buffalo.

WASHINGTON MATTERS.—John Wentworth writes to his paper in Chicago the following among other things:

"The homestead bill 'still drags its slow length along' in the senate, to be amended so as not to apply to Kansas or else to be beaten.—The south gives up Nebraska, but will fight to the bitter end for slavery in Kansas. The homestead bill would be quite equal to a restoration of the Missouri compromise. The senators in the slave-raising interest, know this, and will kill the bill unless they can amend it in this particular. Some of our northern democrats, who voted for the Nebraska bill, pretend that they have been awfully cheated in relation to this bill. They pretend that they were promised that slavery should never go to Kansas, that the homestead bill should be passed, and that of itself would keep it out. They pretend that they only intended to vote for popular sovereignty in the abstract, and never dreamt of the spread of slavery. I look upon the homestead bill, so far as applicable to the new territories, now as entirely defeated."

The panorama advertised by us for some time past will be exhibited at Apollo Hall to-night. We gather from notices where it has been shown, that it is worth seeing. The other chances the reader can estimate for himself.

WOOL.—The attention of wool growers is directed to the advertisement of Mr. Story, who wants to purchase.

THE MADISON CONVENTION.—The mass convention of anti-Nebraska men and such as oppose devoting the energies means and official powers of government to the end of suppressing the continent of America with negroes, held at Madison on the 13th inst., was more largely attended than was expected, considering the busy season. Reasonable harmony and enthusiasm prevailed.

We are disappointed that more wind-broken, political liberties were not present. We are glad of it because their very touch entails a hereditary leprosy that generations unborn are as doomed to suffer from as are the ancestors.—They have generally been bought up however, by the opposite side, where they will be kept on state pay, where it is best to keep them for the present and where it only costs the people of the state about 100,000 dollars a year to keep them.

Of those who serve God like the very devil, or else the devil like a very god, only a few happened to be on hand—we allude to fanatics.—Their incendiary proposals were promptly voted down.

We preferred that the convention declare for a modification of the fugitive slave law, rather than for its repeal. Let that law be amended so as to provide for trial by jury for the slave's liberty, and it is well enough. It is an abominable law however in another particular—we refer to the part providing for the United States to pay expenses for the recovery of runaway negroes. That provision might be expurgated; negroes are property, and when they run away they ought to be recovered at claimants' expense the same as our horses are. It's a mean law, but by amending may be well enough—so may the devil's decalogue.

The clause recommending no support to be given to any man, "whose personal character and conduct is not a guarantee that he is reliable," is most worthy and sensible. We never saw the like in any platform before—in fact platforms are intended to accomplish an opposite purpose—a selection of the chief rascals and those most certain to be without any personal character wherein to rely. We are down on platforms for empty mountebanks to mount upon, but there can be no harm done by an honest declaration of principles, such as the one framed at Madison.—Grant County Herald.

THE WHIG PLATFORM.—The whig state committee of Pennsylvania, have issued an address to the people setting forth the principles which are to guide the whigs of the state in the ensuing canvass.

They may be summed up as follows:

1. The doctrine of the act of 1780, which abolished slavery on account of its sinfulness, injustice and anti-republicanism.
2. To return to the beneficent and anti-slavery national policy of the ordinance of 1787.
3. A repeal of the aggressive portions of the Nebraska bill, and a restoration of the national territory to freedom.
4. The extension of the habeas corpus and jury trial to persons claimed as fugitive slaves.
5. The assertion of the due rights of the states, north as well as south.

A FEARFUL VOYAGE OVER THE FALLS OF ST. ANTHONY.—We learn from Col. Stevens of Minneapolis, that on Saturday night a man named Hickey, undertook to cross the Mississippi above the falls of St. Anthony, in a skiff. Being unacquainted with the channel, and bewildered by the darkness, his boat was drawn into the swift current above the falls, where all his efforts to extricate himself proved unavailing, and he was forced to take the frightful plunge into the water below. Strange as it may seem, he was neither killed nor drowned, but by some means, which we did not learn, succeeded in regaining the shore almost entirely unharmed. This is, we believe, the first time that any person has ever been known to go over the falls and escape with life. Since the days of Amparo Sapa, the descent has been regarded as certain death, and Mr. Hickey may certainly congratulate himself for having done "some things" more successful than Sam Patch did "others." The early writers at Niagara assert that Indians had been known to go over those falls with their canoes in safety. This is now pretty generally regarded as fiction, especially by visitors; but let no man henceforth deny that St. Anthony has been the scene of a corresponding feat.—St. Anthony Dem. 27th inst.

WAKING UP THE WRONG PASSENGER.—On Saturday, a city constable by the name of Cassady, having "the papers" for an individual named in the writ, and far from being considered a "Know Nothing" appeared to know more than the law allowed him and arrested another man. Though frequently told of his mistake by respectable and well known citizens yet he persisted in taking his customer before the magistrate, who of course immediately discharged the gentleman from custody.

The recent prisoner, thinking that one good turn deserved another, immediately had the constable arrested and taken before the proper court, where after proper hearing he was held to answer in the sum of a cool two hundred, which security not being forthcoming, the knowing gentleman was locked up in default.—Chicago Journal.

A HUMAN CANDLE.—The Chinese Repository tells a very good story of the punishment inflicted on a Chinese criminal. His offense, it seems, was unpardonable, and it was determined to make an example of him. Consequently he was wound round with cotton, saturated with tallow, and having been dipped till he presented the appearance of a gigantic candle, was stuck up on his father's grave and lighted. Of course, the poor fellow perished in slow torture. Was ever device heard of so completely diabolical?

DEATH OF THE SCOTCH GIANT.—We learn from the Laporte Whig of the 19th inst., that the well known Scotch giant who has traveled through the country for some years for the purpose of exhibition, died at that place the day previous. He had stopped at the Tegarden house with his wife somewhat overcome with the heat and dust. During the evening he asked for some water and immediately fell dead upon the floor. His remains were taken to his residence in Wisconsin.

The California papers brought per last steamer, in commenting upon the acquittal of Ward for the murder of Butler in Kentucky, say it goes ahead of anything in the annals of California "justice." That's true enough; 24 hours after such an outrage on humanity, in that country, would find the guilty "in his last sleep." Mob law is justice sometimes.—Potosi Repub.

It will be instructive to follow the juryman who disgraced Kentucky on the trial of Matt Ward. One has stultified himself to avoid the indignation of the world, and we notice by the Louisville Courier that four have been indicted for perjury.

BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK, July 25.
BOMBARDMENT OF GREYTOWN.—The Prometheus, which arrived last night, reports that Greytown was bombarded by the U. S. ship of war Cyane, and was afterwards set on fire and destroyed, because the authorities would not make apologies for the insult to Mr. Borland.—Three English vessels witnessed the bombardment, but offered no resistance. No lives were lost, nor did the inhabitants repel the attack in any way whatever.

Latest advices from Mexico deny the death of Gen. Alvarez.

WASHINGTON, July 25.
The sergeant-at-arms of the house of representatives has sent to New York for witnesses to testify as to the alleged alterations of the bill granting lands to Minnesota for the construction of railroads.

WASHINGTON, July 25.
The examination of Col. Forney before the committee of investigation in relation to the alteration of the Minnesota land bill has been concluded, and the accused exonerated from all censure.

In the House, Mr. Fletcher moved a suspension of the rules, in order to enable him to introduce a bill repealing the one granting lands to Minnesota for railroad purposes. The vote was taken and motion lost—Ayes 40, nays 60; not a two-third vote.

A RICH SCENE.—During the performance of Franco's Hippodrome the other day at Niles, Michigan, the tent was prostrated upon the performers and spectators by a violent gale of wind. The Republican makes the following note of what followed:

"The scene which followed can hardly be described. Ladies who had on their very best hats, pinked up in the latest style, drove out from under on all sides, as wet as if they had been through a mill pond. Gents, with collars detached, cutting the ears, in their best rig, forgot the fair dames at their sides, and scrambled as for their lives, seeming to care only for dear self. They came out with wilted collars, and water dripping from them. The scene is described by those who happened to be in the houses adjoining as most laughable. One or two ladies, whose names we did not learn, were slightly injured."

The New York Courier and Enquirer of Saturday, gives a comparative table of the prices of some of the leading stocks at the close of each of the last four weeks. We copy the extremes, as to a few of them:

	July 16.	July 21.

THE APPREHENDED VETO.—Mr. Wentworth, writing from Washington says:

"The Nebraska democrats of the north-west, are furious to have the president sign the bill.—They say that it is the only thing that will save them, that it is hard work to stand up against the extension of slavery in Kansas and that a veto on that of that would be entirely ruinous.—If the supplications, and even tears of these men will save the bill, it is safe enough. They beg hard."

What a spectacle it would present to the democracy of the north-west blubbering like school boys at the feet of Mr. Pierce, and supplicating him not to veto the harbor bill! The sorrows of Weyer were nothing to it. Under the circumstances, it would be a crying sin to have the president veto the bill.—Chicago Jour.

LOCATION OF THE LUNATIC ASYLUM.—We learn that the commissioners of the lunatic asylum have concluded to locate it upon a tract of land belonging to Ex-Governor Farwell, across the Fourth lake, in the vicinity of McBride's point. The lot contains one hundred acres, fronting upon the lake, and it is a spot of unsurpassed natural loveliness. The scenery is bold and beautiful, the land of great fertility, and now covered with native forest trees. The state pays to Mr. Farwell $1500 for the site, which is worth at least $50 per acre. We consider this selection a good one, and the best that, under all the circumstances, could be made. The preparation of the ground, and the erection of suitable buildings, will be immediately commenced.—Madison Argus, Tuesday.

PET RATS.—I was astonished on visiting the houses of some of the inhabitants to see a huge rat walking quietly around the room, and crawling up the master's legs in a cool, familiar manner. Instead of repulsing it or giving any alarm, he took it up in his hands and caressed it; and then I learnt for the first time, and to my utter astonishment, that it was a custom in Bangkok to keep pet rats, which are taken very young and carefully reared, till they attain a perfectly monstrous size from good and plentiful feeding. These domestic rats are kept expressly to free the house of other vermin of their own race, and so ferocious are they in the onslaught they make, that few of the houses are ever annoyed by mice or rats.—Neal's Residence in Siam.

HALF A CENTURY IN BED.—The New York Observer states that Susan Pierson, of Bridgehampton, Long Island, died in February last, at the advanced age of seventy-two years, during fifty-two of which she had not set her foot upon the floor. During that period, the extent of her travels, with the exception of a year spent in a neighbor's house, was from one corner of a room to another, in the arms of some strong man. This change was always attended by a loss of voice, from which she did not recover until after a night's repose. The best medical skill was unable to restore her health, or even to enable her to sit upright in bed. "Aunt Susy," as she was called, was an humble, truthful child of God. Knitting was her almost constant employment, and her bible was ever by her side. During the entire term of her confinement she received the untiring attention of a sister, who survives her, and is now 80 years of age.

NEW YORK DISTRICT ATTORNEY.—The appointment of John McKean as United States district attorney in New York is denounced by the New York papers, and causes great dissatisfaction among the New York democrats. At a meeting in Tammany Hall, resolutions denouncing the appointee as destitute of ability, and expressing impaired confidence in the administration were passed; three well known office holders voting in the affirmative. He is said to be of Irish descent and a Roman catholic.

BAPTIST MINISTER EXPELLED.—Rev. F. M. Haygood was recently put on trial, found guilty of heresy, and expelled from the Baptist church, in Marietta, Ga., because he would not assert nor deny that God foresaw all things. The Rev. gentleman said in his defence that he could find no passage in Scripture which taught the doctrine, and he had no opinion, therefore, on the subject.

"A VIOLENT CASE OF CHOLERA."—The Washington Plain Dealer has the following decidedly rich thing:

Last week there were three cases of cholera in this village which terminated fatally, and, as it might be supposed, our citizens were a good deal alarmed; there not having been a death in the place for the three months preceding. A young man was found at one of our public houses a bed; apparently in distress. Dr. B., a fine old gentleman, who keeps his office across the way, was immediately called in; he examined the patient and pronounced it "a violent case of cholera," and started off for his drug shop, which he reached nearly out of breath in pursuit of his nostrum. Having supplied himself with the necessary "life preservers" he soon returned and administered to his patient a quantity of lobelia, and ordered the crowd to "strip him immediately and commence rubbing him with cayenne, &c.—which they did in good earnest." While in the act of undressing him, a watch dropped from his pocket which the landlord had just missed as stolen from a room. This led some of the less credulous to doubt the extent of his sickness. The Dr. however, still insisted on its being cholera. The patient overheard the conversation about the stolen watch and as it might naturally be expected, "it struck in," and he continued to grow no better fast. Night came, the crowd dispersed, and he was left quite alone. He then scrambled out of bed, put on his clothes in all haste and made a straight wake down the back stairs; showing a taller specimen of "tall walking" than has been exhibited in this village for a long time. The Dr. soon returned but was somewhat surprised to learn that he had "lost his patient." The boys told him that he could no longer boast of "never having lost a patient," yet they were willing to admit that his last advice was necessary; which was that "the patient must have watchers that night." We are told that the Doctor still insists on its being "a violent case of cholera," but inasmuch as the patient has not yet returned we are disposed to report the facts and leave it to the "medical faculty" to decide what the nature of the malady was.

NEW FASHIONED SAVINGS BANK.—The Buffalo Express of the 22d, gives an account of a savings bank, in operation in that city. The principle is new to us, however old it may be as an institution of the religious sect by whom it is organized and conducted. It appears that the catholics of that city have a servant girl's saving bank, which is conducted on a very profitable system for the banker. It does not seem to be quite as liberal as the miller was who adopted the rule of taking the grist of his customer and leaving him the toll. The case in point is that of a servant girl of the Catholic faith, whom he had in his employ. She received her wages regularly for a long time, but never seemed to have any money or any increase to her wardrobe, other than such as she could not dispense with. Feeling an interest in her circumstances and conduct, which all good women should feel, her mistress undertook to interrogate her on some occasion which led to the subject, in relation to what disposition she made of her money—whether she loaned it, or put it in some saving institution. The girl replied that she deposited it with the priest of the congregation to which she belonged, and when she made her next deposit she brought the following rather indefinite certificate for the satisfaction of her mistress:

"I hereby make known that—has at different times, money deposited on St. Mary's church in sums as my books show."

Further conversation with the girl elicited the fact that she made these deposits with the understanding that she was never to get any of it back, but was to become a sister of some holy order, after laboring a year for nothing, then giving in all her deposits, amounting to $85, and adding thereto $500, which she is to receive from the father land. She is not bound, however, to remain with them after the expiration of the year. She may, if she prefer it, go at large after that, for which liberty she is to relinquish to them all her property, amounting to $885, besides the year's labor. The writer pertinently inquires, if there is no law to prevent banking under such a one-sided system as this.

A THRILLING INCIDENT.—We published a few days since an account of the hazardous exploit of a child which clambered upon a roof in New York, and was providentially rescued when death seemed imminent. A precisely similar incident occurred but a day or two since before our own eyes. An infant of not more than two years, unnoticed by its nurse, clambered upon the sill of a window in the third story of the hotel opposite our office, and there stood laughing and crowing, all heedless of the peril that threatened it. It was a sight to make strong men hold their breath. The lightest motion, a breath of air, the least fright, would have thrown it off its balance, and precipitated it upon the pavement below.

A crowd gathered and stood in speechless agony of suspense, expecting momentarily to see the child dashed to pieces. Meanwhile the infant stood boldly erect, and laughing, extended its hands as if inviting a romp with the spectators below. At last, when the sight had become agonizing, a female who had been sewing in the room where the window was, caught sight of the little creature, and with commendable coolness, instead of shrieking, and thus almost certainly bringing about the catastrophe, quietly stepped to the window and encircled the child in her arms. One long, deep breath from the crowd showed the interest they had felt and the relief experienced.—Buff. Dem.

PALPABLE HIT.—The Terra Haute (Indiana) Express thus forcibly hits the tendency of the age to get ahead of Moses:

WONDERFUL GEOLOGICAL DISCOVERY.—A fossil frog has been discovered in the Wabash bottom, several feet below the surface, with half a dozen strata of mud above him, to the formation of which, according to well established geological principles, a period of 6,000 years may be attributed. When this astounding ante-Adamite fossil was brought to light, all the live frogs gathered around it and exclaimed—"Pentateuch! Pentateuch! Ogi! Humber! Enoch! Abimelech! Balaam! Amek! Amek!" thus expressing their utter disbelief in the Mosaic history. The theologians will have to disprove this new fact in science before they can go along.

PROMISING BOYS.—The Providence Journal of this morning alludes to the remarks of Mr. Butler to his former pupils, at Groton, on Wednesday last. Messrs. Abbott Lawrence, James Walker, Joel Parker, John P. Bigelow, Amos Kendall, Isaac Parker and Samuel Lawrence, and remarks that "few school masters have the privilege of giving good advice to so many promising boys. They may yet, by proper diligence, make quite a figure in the world."

TURN YOUR FENCE POSTS.—It is mentioned as a curious fact that a farmer in Connecticut, who recently took up a fence after it had been standing fourteen years, found all those posts solid which had been inverted from the way in which they originally grew, while all those which had been set as they grew were rotted off at the bottom. Heads down, therefore, seems a specific against decay.

BOARD WANTED

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

Sudden Death.—The Watertown Chronicle notices the death of Mr. Kevell, the landlady of the Wisconsin, at that place. He was attacked with cholera, about 4 o'clock, P.M., on Sunday, and died about 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Scare Crow Convention.—Our neighbor of the Courier calls the convention held at Madison last week the "scare crow convention." We do not think it was got up for that, but we notice that the crows and buzzards of the state are wonderfully scared at it.—Oakhosh Dem.

New Counterfeit.—Counterfeit $20 notes on the Bank of Cape Fear, Wilmington, N.C., are in circulation, marked A. No. 136, payable to G. Davis, and dated Dec. 15, 1853, with the figures 20 on each corner and on each side of the vignette. On the right end the medallion image is quite indistinct and somewhat blurred. The vignette is a half clad female in a sitting posture, fondling a goat and a kid. The signatures are tolerably well executed, but the lathe work is decidedly coarse, which, added to the pale and dingy appearance of the note, renders it quite easy of detection.

Assessment of New York City.—The assessed valuation of property in New York city for this year is as follows: real estate, $530,300,396; personal do, $131,721,838; total, $662,022,234, showing an increase of over $48,000,000 beyond last year. We notice, by tables published in the N. Y. Express, giving the valuation since 1826, that it was not until 1852 that the aggregate of real estate reached again the valuation of 1836. The sum total of that year was $233,742,303, and each successive valuation till 1843 showed a falling off; since that year there has been a steady increase. The tax raised this year is $4,841,255.

Illinois Central Railroad.—On the 24th inst., the Chicago Branch of the Illinois Central railroad was formally opened for the transaction of the freight and passenger business to Urbana, a distance of one hundred and thirty miles south from Chicago. IN PURSUANCE of a decretal order of the circuit court for Rock county in equity, made in the above entitled cause on the ninth day of June, A. D. 1854, will be sold, by and under the direction of the sheriff of Rock county, at public auction, at the court house in the city of Janesville, in said county, on the 7th day of September, A. D. 1854, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, all that certain piece, parcel or tract of land situate, lying and being in the village (now city) of Janesville, in the county of Rock, and state of Wisconsin, and known and distinguished as lot number sixteen-seventy, (67) in Smith and Bailey's addition to Janesville, according to the recorded plat of the same. Dated July 24, 1854.
J. Y. 254d WILLIAM H. HOWARD, Sheriff.

$20 REWARD.—A span of horses or a stray or was stolen from the premises of the subscriber one and a half miles from Beloit, on or about the 7th of June last. One of them was rather light in size, a fine looking brown color, a small white star in his forehead, a grey nose, about ten years old last spring, marked on both shoulders with the collar and one foot with a small white spot; when in the harness he is high-spirited. The other was a heavy white horse, high-bred, oldish looking, stiff in the forward part, and marked with the collar on the top of his head. Whoever will return these horses to Mr. Colley living within 1 1/2 miles of Beloit, or to David Noggle at Janesville, shall receive a reward of $20; or whoever will give information where they may be found shall be suitably rewarded.

MADISON MUSIC STORE.
THE undersigned has in his Ware Room, in Bruen's Model Block, a good assortment of Piano Forts, Melodeons, and MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS generally. Some of the best manufacturers in the Union have supplied their work there. Chickering, Hallet & Davis, Lemuel Gilbert, Ward & Brown, Loren Mott of Boston, and Hall & Son of New York, are all contributors to his stock of Pianos.

Prince & Co., Bishop & Child, and S. D. & H. W. Smith's Melodeons are there also. These instruments are not found in auction rooms and other places where forced sales are made to raise money for the makers, for their reputation always commands customers on the manufacturers own terms. They are all for sale at factory prices, and warranted satisfactory.

Pianos from other manufacturers can be furnished if desired.

An experienced and disinterested agent in New York selects for the subscriber any style and priced instrument desired—in whose judgment, musical skill and taste, implicit confidence can be placed.

NEW SHEET MUSIC received weekly, sold at publishers' prices, and sent by mail free of postage.

Violins, Guitars, Tamborines, Banjos, Accordeons, Flutes, Fifes, Italian and other Violin Strings, Guitar and Bass Viol Strings of the best quality, Violin Bows and parts.

Bertini's, Hunter's, and other instruction books for all instruments, and many other articles in the music line, usually found in such stores, kept always on hand.

Do not go further East, until you have called at the MADISON MUSIC STORE, for, depend upon it, there is no use in it.
Madison, May 31st, 1854. D. HOLT.

OIL MILL.
THE OIL MILL of the Subscribers is now in operation. They are prepared to furnish Oil, and ready to buy any quantity of Seed offered to them. Farmers can be supplied with seed for planting the come spring.

Purchasers can rely with confidence on getting a PURE ARTICLE OF LINED OIL, as we use nothing but Good Seed, and no adulteration is allowed.

Crayon Painting, Leather Believo and Paper Macho Work.

MRS. LA DOW AND MISS WINTERS have taken rooms for a few days at Mrs. Streeter's residence, on Main street, one door above the corner of Milwaukee street, and will give lessons in the above branches of useful and ornamental work.

Pupils will be received and thoroughly instructed in either or both of these acquirements, on such terms as will be satisfactory. Materials furnished, and pupils allowed to retain the pieces upon which they are instructed. Usually, these pieces work of themselves, if sold, more than pay the cost of tuition.

An examination of specimen work is respectfully invited.

DEALERS IN HARDWARE,
Wholesale & Retail.

SIGN OF THE SAW, MAIN STREET, JANEVILLE

THE SUBSCRIBERS, in returning their thanks to their numerous patrons for past favors, and soliciting a continuance of the same, would respectfully inform the people of Central and Western Wisconsin, that they have now in store, and offer for sale, at the lowest cash prices, a larger and better selected stock of than can be found in any other establishment in the interior of the State.

The attention of Consumers and Country Dealers is particularly invited to our immense stock of AMERICAN, ENGLISH REFINED & SWEDISH IRON, CAST IRON, ENGLISH & AMERICAN BLISTER, TOP CALK, SPRING, COM. & CAST PLOW STEEL, of all sizes.

Also to the almost endless variety of superior

Carpenter, Joiner, Cooper, Blacksmith, Wagon-making and Farming TOOLS, House Trimmings, Chains and Chain Pumps, Lead Pipe, Cut and Wrought Nails and Spikes, Tin Ware, Tinner's Stock, Britannia and Japanned Ware, Table and Pocket Cutlery, Shears, Scissors, Razors, &c.

Our stock of Cook and Parlor Stoves was never larger than at present, and comprises some forty different patterns selected with great care, (having been previously fully tested in this market,) from several of the best manufacturers in Troy and Albany. Having bought our Stoves on long time, without interest, and at a great discount, we are enabled to complete successfully with those who buy in small lots, "exclusively for cash," of which we will convince all who may give us a trial.

STOVE FURNITURE, STOVE PIPE, and all kinds of IRON WARE constantly on hand, or manufactured to order.

We are agents for the sale of Duryee & Forsyth's celebrated Fire Proof Safes and Platform and Counter Scales, and also for the sale of Yale's Magic Bank, Safe and Store Door Locks.

AGAIN & AGAIN
THE BOSTON STORE.

Let the Horn be Blown!!
"Sound the loud trumpet o'er land and o'er sea," "WHEELLOCK'S triumph, and ever shall be."

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that "Man wants but little here below," and to supply those wants

WHEELLOCK announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his store entirely TOO SMALL! He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to Double the capacity of his Store Rooms! Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season, $39,007 00 Worth of Goods But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS. Indeed, history must fail to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of his immense

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS, His inimitable selection of

Fancy Dress Goods! He has over

10,000 Yards of Silk Bureges, of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair dames of this fair valley can select, FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial will add to their exquisite beauty, though it may as a general thing be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to give refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamois and Foulard Silks, but all manner of Cotton, Grass & Linen Goods are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparel.—Eved French red foxed Gaiters,

Infants' Embroidered Boots, Embroidered Congress Boots,

LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS, And all the latest and most admired of the latest styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTOM cannot stifle the infinite variety." While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

GLOVES, by which hands can be protected and retain

"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand." And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are

"Heaven's last, best gift to man," the Nonpareils of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock's fair customers, that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge conscientiously their several and respective duties, that while they have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fraud, or by any other means.

And now to the wants of the COARSE-HAND SEX. Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—

PANTALOONS, CALF "BOWS," COW HIDE DO., GAZELLE DO., PATENT LEATHER DO., GIRAFFE DO.,

HATS That fit every head from the Westerner brow to the country politician's snout, from the size of cap of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pommented, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And the spectator who buys to sell again, Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchange, so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer

DOMESTIC GLASSWARE, WORSTED, Pocket Handkerchiefs, Instants, Cotton Yarn, Ready-made Vest, Round Necked, Flannel, Looking Glasses, Ready-made Cuffs, Pants, Raincoats, Flat Irons and Cotton Battering, Lanterns, Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm, Chests, Rubber Bandboxes and Hair Trunks, Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

In the CROCKERY Line may be found the BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Chisels for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar. Candelsticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAMP VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can, with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have

"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till 'Tis o'errun the sieve," they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

"Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop, More in mock than mark."

Out of thirteen numbers of the Janesville Daily Gazette, now published, we have received three! Where is the fault—in the publishers or the mails?—Madison Journal.

In neither. We had made special arrangements to send our paper to Madison by the cars daily, and the above notice together with a letter received at the same time from one of our subscribers at Madison, is the first hint we have had that they were not regularly and promptly delivered. We adopted this method and were at some trouble and expense in doing so, in order to serve our friends daily, instead of tri-weekly as we should have to if dependent upon the mail for carrying them. We regret that the arrangement has proved a failure, and that we shall have to resort to the slow means provided by the post office department in future. Our contemporary hereafter will receive our paper as we do his, two at a time but thrice a week.

MORE IMPROVEMENT IN THE MAILS.—The eastern mail which leaves this city at half past ten in the forenoon, now remains in the Beloit post office over night, not reaching Chicago, till the next day, and of course being delayed one day in arriving at its destination. A nice arrangement!

RAILROAD FRICTIONS.—The Chicago Tribune states that the Galena and Chicago railroad company have determined to advance the rate of transporting lumber, on its road, ten per cent., over the present charges, the advance to take effect on the first proximo.

The company has also issued an order that no more grain be shipped, in bulk, at any of the points along the road, except it be consigned to parties who have elevators convenient for receiving direct from the cars. This will force dealers to forward in bags.

THE MADISON DAILY ARGUS.—This paper comes to us enlarged and in an entire new dress. We wish its politics were as good as its typography, for in the latter respect it is not surpassed in the state. For its workmanlike appearance it acknowledges its indebtedness to Mr. F. B. Ward, the foreman of the office, and Mr. W. may well be proud of such a specimen of his labor. Our city printers must look out, or their country competitors will run away with the honors of the profession.

A villager calling himself McMurray, came into the village about two weeks since and took board at one of our principal hotels. He represented himself as having just returned from California, with gold in abundance. On one day last week he was married to a young lady whom he had never seen until within the period of his present visit to the village, and on Saturday two officers of justice from Lansingburg got upon his track and arrested him for theft and forgery. Last evening he took his departure for a more northern climate, with some very uncomfortable looking bracelets upon his wrists. This is what may be called doing things in a hurry.—Peekskill Republican.

We don't know which in this, and similar instances, is the most apparent, the villany of the man or the folly of the woman. Both deserve punishment, and sympathy on either would be thrown away.

FOUR JURORS INDICTED FOR PERJURY.—The Louisville Courier is informed upon good authority, that the grand jury of Hardin county has indicted four of the notorious persons who composed the Ward jury, on a charge of perjury.—The names of only two could be ascertained, and these were McIntire and Edson.

The stone for McAdamizing Main street are now being hauled upon it. Every body is glad to see the improvement go on.

The vote in Whitewater last Tuesday upon taking stock in the Central railroad was 117 in favor and 87 against.

SALE OF STOCKS.—The stocks and bonds, hypothecated by the Schuylers with Cornelius Vanderbilt, esq., for monies advanced by the latter, were sold at auction in Wall street, on Thursday last. Under the influence of the prevailing panic as to railroad securities, the prices realized were very low. Among the bonds sold were $15,000, 7 per cent. of the Midland Point railroad at 20.

The only daughter of ex-president Fillmore died of cholera on the morning of the 26th inst., at the village of Aurora, about twenty miles from Buffalo.

WASHINGTON MATTERS.—John Wentworth writes to his paper in Chicago the following among other things:

"The homestead bill 'still drags its slow length along' in the senate, to be amended so as not to apply to Kansas or else to be beaten. The south gives up Nebraska, but will fight to the bitter end for slavery in Kansas. The homestead bill would be quite equal to a restoration of the Missouri compromise. The senators in the slave-raising interest, know this, and will kill the bill unless they can amend it in this particular. Some of our northern democrats, who voted for the Nebraska bill, pretend that they have been awfully cheated in relation to this bill. They pretend that they were promised that slavery should never go to Kansas, that the homestead bill should be passed, and that of itself would keep it out. They pretend that they only intended to vote for popular sovereignty in the abstract, and never dreamt of the spread of slavery. I look upon the homestead bill, so far as applicable to the new territories, now as entirely defeated."

The panorama advertised by us for some time past will be exhibited at Apollo Hall to-night. We gather from notices where it has been shown, that it is worth seeing. The other chances the reader can estimate for himself.

WOOL.—The attention of wool growers is directed to the advertisement of Mr. Story, who wants to purchase.

THE MADISON CONVENTION.—The mass convention of anti-Nebraska men and such associates, devoting the energies, means and official powers of government to the end of suppressing the contingent of America with negroes, held at Madison on the 13th inst., was more largely attended than was expected, considering the busy season. Reasonable harmony and enthusiasm prevailed.

We are disappointed that more wind-broken, political libertines were not present. We are glad of it because their very touch entails a hereditary leprosy that generations unborn are doomed to suffer from as are the ancestors.—They have generally been bought up however, by the opposite side, where they will be kept on state pay, where they best to keep them for the present and who can only estimate the people of the state about 100,000 dollars a year to keep them.

Off those who serve God like the very devil, for the devil like a very good only a few have happened to be on hand—we allude to fanatics.—Their incendiary proposals were promptly voted down.

We preferred that the convention declare for the abolition of the fugitive law, rather than for its repeal. Let that law be amended so as to provide for trial by jury for the slave's liberty, and it is well enough. It is an abominable law however in another particular—we refer to the part providing for the United States to pay expenses for the recovery of runaway negroes. That provision might be expurgated; negroes are property, and when they run away they ought to be recovered at claimant's expense the same as our horses are. It is a mean law, but by attending may be well enough—so may the devil's decalogue.

The clause recommending no support to be given to any man, "whose personal character and conduct is not a guarantee that he is reliable" is most worthy and sensible. We never saw the like in any platform before—in fact platforms are intended to accomplish an opposite purpose—a selection of the chief rascals and those most certain to be without any personal character whereon to rely. We are down on platforms for empty mouthed backs to mount upon, but there can be no harm done by an honest declaration of principles, such as the one framed at Madison.—Grant County Herald.

THE WHIG PLATFORM.—The whig state committee of Pennsylvania, have issued an address to the people setting forth the principles which are to guide the whigs of the state in the ensuing canvass.

They may be summed up as follows:

1. The doctrine of the act of 1780, which abolished slavery on account of its sinfulness, injustice and anti-republicanism.
2. To return to the beneficent and anti-slavery national policy of the ordinance of 1787.
3. A repeal of the aggressive portions of the Nebraska bill, and a restoration of the national territory to freedom.
4. The extension of the habeas corpus and jury trial to persons claimed as fugitive slaves.
5. The assertion of the due rights of the states, north as well as south.

A FEARFUL VOYAGE OVER THE FALLS OF ST. ANTHONY.—We learn from Col. Stevens of Minneapolis, that on Saturday night, a man named Hickey, undertook to cross the Mississippi above the falls of St. Anthony, in a skiff. Being unacquainted with the channel, and bewildered by the darkness, his boat was drawn into the swift current above the falls, where all his efforts to extricate himself proved unavailing, and he was forced to take the frightful plunge into the water below. "Strange as it may seem, he was neither killed nor drowned, but by some means, which we did not learn, succeeded in regaining the shore almost entirely unharmed. This, we believe, the first time that any person has ever been known to go over the falls and escape with life. Since the days of Amparo Sapa, the descent has been regarded as certain death, and Mr. Hickey may certainly congratulate himself for having done "some things" with more success than Sam Patch did "others." The early writers at Niagara, assert that Indians had been known to go over those falls with their canoes in safety. This is now pretty generally regarded as fiction, especially by visitors; but let no man henceforth deny that St. Anthony has been the scene of a corresponding feat.—St. Anthony Dem. 27th inst.

WAKING UP THE WRONG PASSION.—On Saturday, a city constable by the name of Cassidy, having "the papers" for an individual named in the writ, and far from being considered a "Know Nothing" appeared to know more than the law allowed him and arrested another man. Though frequently told of his mistake by respectable and well known citizens yet he persisted in taking his customer before the magistrate, who of course immediately discharged the gentleman from custody.

The recent prisoner, thinking that one good turn deserved another, immediately had the constable arrested and taken before the proper court, where after proper hearing he was held to answer in the sum of a cool two hundred, which security not being forthcoming, the knowing gentleman was locked up in default.—Chicago Journal.

A HUMAN CANDLE.—The Chinese Repository tells a very good story of the punishment inflicted on a Chinese criminal. His offense, it seems, was unpardonable, and it was determined to make an example of him. Consequently he was wound round with cotton, saturated with tallow, and having been dipped till he presented the appearance of a gigantic candle, was stuck up on his father's grave and lighted. Of course, the poor fellow perished in slow torture. Was ever device heard of so completely diabolical?

DEATH OF THE SCOTCH GIANT.—We learn from the Laporte Whig of the 10th inst., that the well known Scotch giant who has traveled through the country for some years for the purpose of exhibition, died at that place the day previous. He had stopped at the Teegarden house with his wife somewhat overcome with the heat and dust. During the evening he asked for some water and immediately fell dead upon the floor. His remains were taken to his residence in Wisconsin.

The California papers brought our last steamer in commenting upon the acquittal of Ward for the murder of Butler in Kentucky, say it goes ahead of anything in the annals of California "justice." That's true enough; 24 hours after such an outrage on humanity, in that country, would find the guilty "in his last sleep." Mob law is justice sometimes.—Potosi Repub.

It will be instructive to follow the jurymen who disgraced Kentucky on the trial of Matt Ward. One has stultified himself to avoid the indignation of the world, and we notice by the Louisville Courier that four have been indicted for perjury.

Not long since an eastern man, on his way to Boston, was stopped on the highway by a robber, who requested him to hand over his money or he would blow out his brains. "O," said the traveler quickly, "blow away; it's better to go to Boston without brains than without money."

BY TELEGRAPH.

BOMBARDMENT OF GREYTOWN.—The Prometheus, which arrived last night, reports that Greytown was bombarded by the U. S. ship of war Cyane, and was afterwards set on fire and destroyed, because the authorities would not make apologies for insult to Mr. Borland.—Three English vessels witnessed the bombardment, but offered no resistance. No lives were lost, nor did the inhabitants repel the attack in any way whatever.

Date advices from Mexico deny the death of Gen. Alvarez.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The sergeant-at-arms of the house of representatives has sent to New York for witnesses to testify as to the alleged alterations of the bill granting lands to Minnesota for the construction of railroads.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The examination of Col. Forney before the committee of investigation in relation to the alteration of the Minnesota land bill has been concluded, and the accused exonerated from all censure.

In the House, Mr. Fletcher moved a suspension of the rules in order to enable him to introduce a bill repealing the one granting lands to Minnesota for railroad purposes. The vote was taken and motion lost—Ayes 40, nays 80; not a two-third vote.

A RIGID SCENE.—During the performance of Franconi's Hippodrome the other day at Niles, Michigan, the tent was prostrated upon the performers and spectators by a violent gale of wind. The Republican makes the following note of what followed:

"The scene which followed can hardly be described. Ladies who had on their very best, their white silks, their finest ribbons and best hats, prinked up in the latest style, drove out from under on all sides, as wet as if they had been through a mill pond. Gents, with collars detached, cutting the ears, in their best rig, forgot the fair dames at their sides, and scrambled for their lives, seeming to care only for dear self. They came out with wilted collars, and water dripping from them. The scene is described by those who happened to be in the houses adjoining as most laughable. One or two ladies, whose names we did not learn, were slightly injured."

The New York Courier and Enquirer of Saturday, gives a comparative table of the prices of some of the leading stocks at the close of each of the last four weeks. We copy the extremes, as a few of them:

	July 16.	July 21.
N. Y. & Erie R.R. stocks.	69 1/2	80
N. Y. Central	101	91
Michigan Central	98	85
Michigan Southern	119	90
Hudson River	62	50
Illinois Central	116	70
Crystal Palace	22	51

THE APPREHENDED VETO.—Mr. Wentworth, writing from Washington says: "The Nebraska democrats of the north-west are furious to have the president sign the bill. They say that it is the only thing that will save them, that it is hard work to stand up against the extension of slavery in Kansas and that a veto on top of that would be entirely ruinous. If the supplications, and even tears of these men will save the bill, it is safe enough. They beg hard."

What a spectacle it would present to the democracy of the north-west blubbering like school boys at the feet of Mr. Pierce, and supplicating him not to veto the harbor bill! The sorrows of Verter would be nothing to it. Under the circumstances, it would be a crying sin to have the president veto the bill.—Chicago Jour.

LOCATION OF THE LUNATIC ASYLUM.—We learn that the commissioners of the lunatic asylum have concluded to locate it upon a tract of land belonging to Ex-Governor Farwell, across the Fourth lake, in the vicinity of McBride's point. The lot contains one hundred acres, fronting upon the lake, and it is a spot of unsurpassed natural loveliness. The scenery is bold and beautiful, the land of great fertility, and now covered with native forest trees. The state pays to Mr. Farwell $1500 for the site, which is worth at least $50 per acre. We consider this selection a good one, and the best that, under all the circumstances, could be made. The preparation of the ground, and the erection of suitable buildings, will be immediately commenced.—Madison Argus, Thursday.

PET RATS.—I was astonished on visiting the houses of some of the inhabitants to see a large rat walking quietly around the room, and crawling up the master's legs in a cool, familiar manner. Instead of repulsing it or giving any alarm, he took it up in his hands and caressed it; and then I learnt for the first time, and to my utter astonishment, that it was a custom in Bangkok to keep pet rats, which are taken very young and carefully reared, till they attain a perfectly monstrous size from good and plentiful feeding. These domestic rats are kept expressly to free the house of other vermin of their own race, and so ferocious are they in the onslaught they make, that few of the houses are ever annoyed by mice or rats.—Near's Residence in Siam.

HALF A CENTURY IN BED.—The New York Observer states that Susan Pierpont, of Bridgehampton, Long Island, died in February, last, at the advanced age of seventy-two years, during fifty-two of which she had not set her foot upon the floor. During that period, the extent of her travels, with the exception of a year spent in a neighbor's house, was from one corner of a room to another, in the arms of some strong man. This change was always attended by a loss of voice, from which she did not recover until after a night's repose. The best medical skill was unable to restore her health, or even to enable her to sit upright in bed. "Aunt Susy," as she was called, was an humble, truthful child of God. Kuiting was her almost constant employment, and her bible was ever by her side. During the entire term of her confinement she received the undivided attention of a sister, who survives her, and is now 80 years of age.

NEW YORK DISTRICT ATTORNEY.—The appointment of John McKeon as United States district attorney in New York is denounced by the New York papers, and causes great dissatisfaction among the New York democrats. At a meeting in Tammany Hall, resolutions denouncing the appointee as destitute of ability, and expressing impaired confidence in the administration were passed; three well known office holders voting in the affirmative. He is said to be of Irish descent and a Roman catholic.

BAPTIST MINISTER EXPELLED.—Rev. F. M. Haygood was recently put on trial, found guilty of heresy, and expelled from the Baptist church, in Marietta, Ga., because he would neither assert nor deny that God foresaw all things. The Rev. gentleman said in his defence that he could find no passage in Scripture which taught the doctrine, and he had no opinion, therefore, on the subject.

A VIOLENT CASE OF CHOLERA.

The Washington Dealer has the following decidedly rich thing:

Last week there were three cases of cholera in this village which terminated fatally, and it might be supposed, our citizens were in good luck; there not having been a death in the place for the three months preceding. A young man was found at one of our public houses a bed; apparently in distress. Dr. B., a fine old gentleman, who keeps his office across the way, was immediately called in; he examined the patient and pronounced it a violent case of cholera, and started off for his drug shop, which he reached nearly out of breath in pursuit of his remedies. Having supplied himself with the necessary life preservers, he soon returned and administered to his patient a quantity of lobelia, and ordered the crowd to "scrap him immediately," and commenced rubbing him with cayenne, which they did in good earnest. While in the act of undressing him, a watch dropped from his pocket which the land lord had just mislaid as stolen from another room. This led some of the less credulous to doubt the extent of his sickness. The Dr. however still insisted on his being cholera. The patient overheard this conversation about the stolen watch and as it might naturally be expected, "it struck in," and he continued to grow no better fast. Night came, the crowd dispersed, and he was left quite alone. He then scrambled out of bed, put on his clothes in all haste and made a straight wake down the back stairs; showing a taller specimen of tall walking than has been exhibited in this village for a long time. The Dr. soon returned but was somewhat surprised to learn that he had "lost his patient." The boys told him that he could no longer boast of "never having lost a patient," yet they were willing to admit that his last advice was necessary; which was that "the patient must have watched that night." We are told that the Doctor still insists on his being a violent case of cholera, but inasmuch as the patient has not yet returned we are disposed to report the facts and leave it to the "medical faculty" to decide what the nature of the malady was.

NEW FASHIONED SAVINGS BANK.—The Buffalo Express of the 22d, gives an account of a savings bank, in operation in that city. The principle is new to us, however. It may be as an institution of the religious sect by whom it is organized and conducted. It appears that the catholics of that city have a servant girl's saving bank, which is conducted on a very profitable system for the banker. It does not seem to be quite as liberal as the miller who adopted the rule of taking the grist of his customer and leaving him the toll. The case in point is that of a servant girl of the catholic faith, whom he had in his employ. She received her wages regularly for a long time, but never seemed to have any money or any increase to her wardrobe, other than such as she could not dispense with. Feeling an interest in her circumstances and conduct, which all good women should feel, her mistress undertook to interrogate her on some occasion which led to the subject, in relation to what disposition she made of her money—whether she loaned it, or put it in some saving institution. The girl replied that she deposited it with the priest of the congregation to which she belonged; and when she made her next deposit she brought the following rather indefinite certificate for the satisfaction of her mistress:

I hereby make known that _____ has at different times, money deposited on St. Mary's church in sums as my books show.

Buffalo, 1884. P. JOS. HELMSPRACH.

Further conversation with the girl elicited the fact that she made these deposits with a understanding that she was never to get any of it back, but was to become a sister of some holy order, after laboring a year for nothing, then giving in all her deposits, amounting to $85, and adding thereto $500, which she is to receive from the father land. She is not bound, however, to remain with them after the expiration of the year. She may, if she prefer it, go at large after that, for which liberty she is to relinquish to them all her property, amounting to $885, besides the year's labor. The writer pertinently inquires, if there is no law to prevent banking under such a one-sided system as this.

A THRILLING INCIDENT.—We published a few days since an account of the hazardous exploit of a child which clambered upon a roof in New York, and was providentially rescued when death seemed imminent. A precisely similar incident occurred but a day or two since before our own eyes. An infant of not more than two years, unnoticed by its nurse, clambered upon the sill of a window in the third story of the hotel opposite our office, and there stood laughing and crowing, all heedless of the peril that threatened it. It was a sight to make strong men hold their breath. The slightest motion, a breath of air, the least fright, would have thrown it off its balance, and precipitated it upon the pavement below.

A crowd gathered and stood in speechless agony of suspense, expecting momentarily to see the child dashed to pieces. Meanwhile the infant stood boldly erect, and laughing, extended its hands as if inviting a romp with the spectators below. At last, when the sight had become agonizing, a female who had been sewing in the room where the widow was, caught sight of the little creature, and with commendable coolness, instead of shrieking, and thus almost certainly bringing about the catastrophe, quietly stepped to the window and enclosed the child in her arms. One long, deep breath from the crowd showed the interest they had felt and the relief experienced.—Buff. Dem.

PALPABLE HIT.—The Terra Haute (Indiana) Express thus forcibly hits the tendency of the age to get ahead of Moses:

WONDERFUL GEOLOGICAL DISCOVERY.—A fossil frog has been discovered in the Wabash bottom, several feet below the surface, with half a dozen strata of mud above him, to the formation of which, according to well established geological principles, a period of 6,000 years may be attributed. When this astounding ante-Adam fossil was brought to light, all the five frogs gathered around it and exclaimed—"Pentateuch! Pentateuch! Ogi! Humbugi! Enoch! Abimelech! Balaah! Amekel! Amekel!" thus expressing their utter disbelief in the Mosaic history. Theologians will have to disprove this new fact in science before they can go along.

PROMISING BOYS.—The Providence Journal of this morning alludes to the remarks of Mr. Butler to his former pupils, at Groton, on Wednesday last. Messrs. Abbott Lawrence, James Walker, Joel Parker, John P. Bigelow, Amos Kendall, Isaac Parker and Samuel Lawrence, and remarks that "few school masters have the privilege of giving good advice to so many promising boys. They may yet, by proper diligence, make quite a figure in the world."

TURN YOUR FENCE POSTS.—It is mentioned as a curious fact that a farmer in Connecticut, who recently took up a fence after it had been standing fourteen years, found all those posts which they originally grew, while all those which had been set as they grew were rotted off at the bottom. Heads down, therefore, seems a specific against decay.

RAILROAD STORE!

I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,

To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store, Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old.

The richest and the cheapest goods in Milwaukee will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing.

The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling.

I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare.

Flaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat.

And Gloves a great variety, they are so very cheap.

Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright.

For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know.

That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show.

Such as Blouse and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too.

Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimblettes I almost had forgot.

And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought, with Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat.

And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "director rays," I've Parasols to sell.

Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gentlemen, or so to suit their way.

For lots of them get called off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind.

To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find.

And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests.
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats.

Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps.

And for infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright.

And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white, and every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

They say long advertisements are not the oftentimes read.

And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all.

Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.

IRA P. BALLIOW.

everything in the Shawl line, from the lowest price to the best article in the market.

EMBROIDERY GOODS.

We probably have a better assortment of these Goods than all the rest of the stores in Janesville put together, consisting of Flowing Sleeves, Habits, Chemisettes, Collars &c., of the most fashionable goods in market, which will be sold at LOW PRICES than ever before sold in this State. The attention of the Ladies is particularly directed to these Goods.

PARASOLS. We have now on sale 1000 Parasols. Our immense stock in these goods compels us to say that we will under sell any establishment in this city, at least 25 percent.

4000 Yards
Fine, Past Colored French Ginghams this day received, that we are selling at 1s. per yard. They cannot be matched in town less than 1s. 6d. Call soon, if you want to save 50 per cent in Ginghams, as they are going fast.

BONNET AND BONNET RIBBONS,
Cheaper than the Cheapest.

READY-MADE CLOTHING.

Our Clothing Rooms are well stocked with the best made and most fashionable clothing in the market—we have the most extensive assortment of all kinds of clothing in Rock county, and we shall keep up the reputation we have already gained, of underselling any of our neighbors. Among our stock may be found 1,000
Linen Coats, warranted linen, at 75 cents each.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

We have now in store over 20,000 pairs of BOOTS AND SHOES of descriptions too numerous to detail. The people are requested to take a look. When they examine the goods and hear the prices, we know they will purchase.

CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE.

In these goods we have a very extensive stock of the best ware in the market. Persons wanting full sets of crockery, will do well to call on us, as they will save at least 25 per cent, and get the very best of ware.

GROCERIES.

As usual our stock of these goods is very large and complete, and the choicest kind of goods. We have a few new chests of that splendid YOUNG HYSOY
TEA, that we have been selling so much of. Good Sugar for 4 1/2 c.

In conclusion, we would say that we find the Cash System the only one that will give us success. We buy wholly for cash, and shall sell them for the same, and no other way; and consequently those that buy and sell on credit of a year, eighteen months or two years, as the case may be, cannot be so successful as our prices.
THAT'S SO! For the proof of our assertion, call and examine our goods and prices.

Remember the Store, corner Main & Milwaukee streets.

A GREAT MISTAKE.

J. B. CROSBY & Co.

HAVE just returned from New York and Boston, and purchased so large a stock of Merchandise that they have not room to store them, and to remedy this, they have concluded to mark their goods down.

A TRIFLE ABOVE COST.

which will cover their store with customers and ensure large and heavy sales, thus making room for goods yet to arrive. Ladies and Gentlemen,

THIS IS NO HUMBUZ,

but a REALITY, and to be convinced of this fact personally, look through their immense stock; see the amount of goods they have in store, (and but a portion of their stock has yet arrived,) enquire the price, and you will acknowledge that we will sell you

GOOD GOODS, at nearly half the Price, than other Merchants charge. We shall not mention a few leading articles and their prices, and sell the balance of stock at higher rates, as other Merchants do, but shall mark our whole stock at a small regular profit, and adhere strictly to it.

ONE PRICE SYSTEM.

Our stock consists of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, CROCKERY, BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS, CAPS, CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, READY-MADE CLOTHING, &c. &c., to which we invite especial attention, as to quality and price, as we are determined that

Every Sale shall give Full and Perfect Satisfaction.

Auction or shop worn goods which are not cheap a any price we do not deal in; but buy only the best grade of goods, and of the latest styles. We are the only House in Janesville that do a strictly cash business, and buying of importers and wholly for cash, we are determined that

CAN AND WILL SELL
CHEAPER AND BETTER GOODS, than those who buy small stocks on time, and sell them the same way.

To Country Merchants,
We would say, that we will sell you goods at New York and Boston prices, adding freight. You will find us at the old stand of J. B. CROSBY, two doors above the Post Office.

Janesville, May 10, 1854.

Out of thirteen numbers of the Janesville Daily Gazette, now published, we have received three! Where is the fault—in the publishers or the mails?—Madison Journal.

In furtherance of our special arrangement to send our paper to Madison by the cars daily, and the above notice together with a letter received at the same time from one of our subscribers at Madison, is the first hint we have had that they were not regularly and promptly delivered. We adopted this method and were at some trouble and expense in doing so, in order to serve our friends daily, instead of tri-weekly as we should have to depend upon the mail for carrying them. We regret that this arrangement has proved a failure, and that we shall have to resort to the slow means provided by the post office department, in future. Our contemporary hereafter will receive our paper as we do his, two at a time but thrice a week.

MORE IMPROVEMENT IN THE MAILS.—The eastern mail which leaves this city at half past ten in the forenoon, now remains in the Deloit post office over night, not reaching Chicago till the next day, and of course being delayed one day in arriving at its destination. A nice arrangement!

RAILROAD FREIGHTS.—The Chicago Tribune states that the Galena and Chicago railroad company have determined to advance the rate of transporting lumber, on its road, ten per cent., over the present charges, the advance to take effect on the first proximo.

The company has also issued an order that no more grain be shipped, in bulk, at any of the points along the road, except it be consigned to parties who have elevators convenient for receiving direct from the cars. This will force dealers to forward in bags.

THE MADISON DAILY ARGUS.—This paper comes to us enlarged and in an entire new dress. We wish its politics were as good as its typography, for in the latter respect it is not surpassed in the state. For its workmanlike appearance it acknowledges its indebtedness to Mr. F. B. Ward, the foreman of the office, and Mr. W. may well be proud of such a specimen of his labor. Our city printers must look out, or their country competitors will run away with the honors of the profession.

A villain calling himself McMurray, came into the village about two weeks since and took board at one of our principal hotels. He represented himself as having just returned from California, with gold in abundance. On one day last week he was married to a young lady whom he had never seen until within the period of his present visit to the village, and on Saturday two officers of justice from Lunsburg got upon his track and arrested him for theft and forgery. Last evening he took his departure for a more northern climate, with some very uncomfortable looking bracelets upon his wrists. This is what may be called doing things in a hurry.—Peckskill Republican.

We don't know which in this, and similar instances, is the most apparent—the villainy of the man or the folly of the woman. Both deserve punishment, and sympathy on either would be thrown away.

FOUR JUDGES INDICTED FOR PERJURY.—The Louisville Courier is informed upon good authority, that the grand jury of Hardin county has indicted four of the notorious persons who composed the Ward jury, on a charge of perjury. The names of only two could be ascertained, and these were McIntire and Edson.

The stone for McAdams' Main street are now being hauled upon it. Every body is glad to see the improvement go on.

The vote in Whitewater last Tuesday upon taking stock in the Central railroad was 117 in favor and 37 against.

SALE OF STOCKS.—The stocks and bonds, hypothecated by the Schuylers with Cornelius Vanderbilt, esp., for monies advanced by the latter, were sold at auction in Wall street, on Thursday last. Under the influence of the prevailing panic as to railroad securities, the prices realized were very low. Among the bonds sold were $15,000, 7 per cent. of the Mineral Point railroad at 20.

The only daughter of ex-president Fillmore died of cholera on the morning of the 26th inst., at the village of Aurora, about twenty miles from Buffalo.

WASHINGTON.—John Wentworth writes to his paper in Chicago the following among other things:

"The homestead bill" still drags its slow length along in the senate, to be amended so as not to apply to Kansas or else to be beaten. The south gives up Nebraska, but will fight to the bitter end for slavery in Kansas. The homestead bill would be quite equal to a restoration of the Missouri compromise. The senators in the slave-ravaging interest, know this, and will kill the bill unless they can amend it in this particular. Some of our northern democrats, who voted for the Nebraska bill, pretend that they have been awfully cheated in relation to this bill. They pretend that they were promised that slavery should never go to Kansas, that the homestead bill should be passed, and that of itself would keep it out. They pretend that they only intended to vote for popular sovereignty in the abstract, and never dreamt of the spread of slavery. I look upon the homestead bill, so far as applicable to the new territories, now as entirely defeated."

The panorama advertised by us for some time past will be exhibited at Apollo Hall tonight. We gather from notices where it has been shown, that it is worth seeing. The other chances the reader can estimate for himself.

WOOL.—The attention of wool growers is directed to the advertisement of Mr. Story, who wants to purchase.

THE MADISON CONVENTION.—The mass-convention of anti-Nebraska men and such as oppose devoting the energies, means and official powers of government to the end of over-spreading the continent of America with negroes, held at Madison on the 23rd inst., was more largely attended than was expected, considering the busy season. Reasonable harmony and enthusiasm prevailed.

We are disappointed that more wind-broken, political liberties were not present. We are glad of it because their very touch entails a hereditary leprosy that generations unborn are as doomed to suffer from as are the ancestors. They have generally been bought up however, by the opposite side, where they will be kept on state pay, where it is best to keep them for the present, and when it only costs the people of the state about 100,000 dollars a year to keep them.

Of those who serve God-like, the very devil, or else the devil like a very god, only a few happened to be on hand. We allude to fanatics. Their incendiary proposals were promptly voted down.

We preferred that the convention declare for a modification of the fugitive-slave law, rather than for its repeal. Let that law be amended so as to provide for trial by jury for the slave's liberty, and it is well enough. It is an abominable law however in another particular—we refer to the part providing for the United States to pay expenses for the recovery of runaway negroes. That provision might be expurgated; negroes are property, and when they run away they ought to be recovered at claimant's expense the same as our horses are. It's a mean law, but by amending may be well enough—so may the devil's decalogue.

His clause recommending no support to be given to any man, "whose personal character and conduct is not a guarantee that he is reliable," is most worthy and sensible. We never saw this like in any platform before—in fact platforms are intended to accomplish an opposite purpose—a selection of the chief rascals and those most certain to be without any personal character whereon to rely. We are down on platforms for empty mountebanks to mount upon, but there can be no harm done by an honest declaration of principles, such as the one framed at Madison.—Grant County Herald.

THE WHIG PLATFORM.—The whig state committee of Pennsylvania, have issued an address to the people setting forth the principles which are to guide the wings of the state in the ensuing canvass.

They may be summed up as follows:

1. The doctrine of the act of 1780, which abolished slavery on account of its sinfulness, injustice and anti-republicanism.
2. To return to the beneficent and anti-slavery national policy of the ordinance of 1787.
3. A repeal of the aggressive portions of the Nebraska bill, and a restoration of the national territory to freedom.
4. The extension of the habeas corpus and jury trial to persons claimed as fugitive slaves.
5. The assertion of the due rights of the states, north as well as south.

A FEARFUL VOYAGE OVER THE FALLS OF ST. ANTHONY.—We learn from Col. Stevens of Minneapolis, that on Saturday night, a man named Hickey, undertook to cross the Mississippi above the falls of St. Anthony, in a "skiff." Being unacquainted with the channel, and bewildered by the darkness, his boat was drawn into the swift current above the falls, where all his efforts to extricate himself proved unavailing, and he was forced to take the frightful plunge into the water below. Strange as it may seem, he was neither killed nor drowned, but by some means, which we did not learn, succeeded in regaining the shore almost entirely unharmed. This is, we believe, the first time that any person has ever been known to go over the falls and escape with life. Since the days of Amputa to Sapa, the descent has been regarded as certain death, and Mr. Hickey may certainly congratulate himself for having done "some things" with more success than Sam Patch did. "Others." The early writers at Niagara, assert that Indians had been known to go over those falls with their canoes in safety. This is now pretty generally regarded as fiction, especially by visitors, but let no man henceforth deny that St. Anthony has been the scene of a corresponding feat.—St. Anthony Daily 27th inst.

WAKING UP THE WROTH PASSION.—On Saturday, a city constable by the name of Cassidy, having "the papers" for an individual named in the writ, and far from being considered a "Know Nothing" appeared to know more than the law allowed him and arrested another man. Though frequently told of his mistake by respectable and well known citizens yet he persisted in taking his customer before the magistrate, who of course immediately discharged the gentleman from custody.

The recent prisoner, thinking that one good turn deserved another, immediately had the constable arrested and taken before the proper court, where after proper hearing he was held to answer in the sum of a cool two hundred, which security not being forthcoming, the knowing gentleman was locked up in default.—Chicago Journal.

A HUMAN CASTLE.—The Chinese Repository tells a very good story of the punishment inflicted on a Chinese criminal. His offense, it seems, was unpardonable, and it was determined to make an example of him. Consequently he was wound round with cotton, saturated with tallow, and having been dipped till he presented the appearance of a gigantic candle, was struck up on his father's grave and lighted. Of course, the poor fellow perished in slow torture. Was ever device heard of so completely diabolical?

DEATH OF THE SCOTCH GIANT.—We learn from the Laporte Whig of the 19th inst., that the well known Scotch giant who has traveled through the country for some years for the purpose of exhibition, died at that place the day previous. He had stopped at the Teegarden house with his wife somewhat overcome with the heat and dust. During the evening he asked for some water and immediately fell dead upon the floor. His remains were taken to his residence in Wisconsin.

The California papers brought per last steamer, in commenting upon the acquittal of Ward for the murder of Butler in Kentucky, say it goes ahead of anything in the annals of California "justice." That's true enough; 24 hours after such an outrage on humanity, in that country, would find the guilty "in his last sleep." Mob law is justice sometimes.—Potomac Republic.

It will be instructive to follow the jurymen who disgraced Kentucky on the trial of Matt Ward. One has stultified himself to avoid the indignation of the world, and we notice by the Louisville Courier that four have been indicted for perjury.

Not long since an eastern man, on his way to Boston, was stopped on the highway by a robber, who requested him to hand over his money or he would blow out his brains. "O," said the traveler quickly, "blow away; it's better to go to Boston without brains than without money."

BOMBARDMENT OF GREYSTOWN.—The Promethean, which arrived last night, reports that Greystown was bombarded by the U. S. sloop-of-war Cyane, and was afterwards set on fire and destroyed, because the authorities would not make apologies for the insult to Mr. Boardman. Three English vessels witnessed the bombardment, but offered no resistance. No lives were lost, nor did the inhabitants repel the attack in any way whatever.

Date advices from Mexico deny the death of Gen. Alvarez.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The sergeant-at-arms of the house of representatives has sent to New York for witnesses to testify as to the alleged attempts of the bill granting lands to Minnesota for the construction of railroads.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—The examination of Col. Forney before the committee of investigation in relation to the alteration of the Minnesota land bill has been concluded, and the accused exonerated from all censure.

In the House, Mr. Fletcher moved a suspension of the rules, in order to enable him to introduce a bill repealing the one granting lands to Minnesota for railroad purposes. The vote was taken and motion lost—Ayes 40, nays 60; not a two-third vote.

A RICH SCENE.—During the performance of Franco's Hippodrome, the other day at Niles, Michigan, the tent was prostrated upon the performers and spectators by a violent gale of wind. The Republican makes the following note of what followed:

"The scene which followed can hardly be described. Ladies who had on their very best—their white silks, their finest ribbons and best hats, printed up in the latest style, drove out from under on all sides, as wet as if they had been through a mill pond. Gents, with collars starched, untied the ends in their best rig, forgot the fair dames at their sides, and scrambled as for their lives, seeming to care only for dear self. They came out with wilted collars, and water dripping from them. The scene is described by those who happened to be in the houses adjoining as most laughable. One or two ladies, whose names we did not learn, were slightly injured."

The New York Courier and Enquirer of Saturday, gives a comparative table of the prices of some of the leading stocks at the close of each of the last four weeks. We copy the extremes, as to a few of them:

N. Y. & Erie R.R. Stocks,	July 16	July 21
N. Y. Central	100	50
Michigan Central	100	85
Michigan Southern	110	90
Hudson River	100	82
Illinois Central	110	70
Illinois Central Bonds	105	69
Crystal Palace	22	51

THE APPREHENDED VETO.—Mr. Wentworth, writing from Washington says:

"The Nebraska democrats of the north-west are furious to have the president sign the bill. They say that it is the only thing that will save them, that it is hard work to stand up against the extension of slavery in Kansas and that a veto on top of that would be entirely ruinous. If the applications, and even tears of these men will save the bill, it is safe enough. They beg hard."

What a spectacle it would present to the democracy of the north-west blubbering like school boys at the feet of Mr. Pierce, and supplicating him not to veto the harbor bill! The sorrows of Wexler would be nothing to it. Under the circumstances, it would be a crying sin to have the president veto the bill.—Chicago Jour.

LOCATION OF THE LUNATIC ASYLUM.—We learn that the commissioners of the lunatic asylum have concluded to locate it upon a tract of land belonging to Ex-Governor Farwell, across the Fourth lake, in the vicinity of McBride's point. The lot contains one hundred acres, fronting upon the lake, and it is a spot of unsurpassed natural loveliness. The scenery is bold and beautiful, the land of great fertility, and not covered with native forest trees. The state pays to Mr. Farwell $1500 for the site, which is worth at least $50 per acre. We consider this selection a good one, and the best that, under all the circumstances, could be made.

The preparation of the ground, and the erection of suitable buildings, will be immediately commenced.—Madison Argus, Tuesday.

PAT RATS.—I was astonished on visiting the houses of some of the inhabitants to see a huge rat walking quietly around the room, and crawling up the master's legs in a cool, familiar manner. Instead of repulsing it or giving any alarm, he took it up in his hands and caressed it; and then I learnt for the first time, and to my utter astonishment, that it was a custom in Bangkok to keep pet rats, which are taken very young and carefully reared, till they attain a perfectly monstrous size from good and plentiful feeding. These domestic rats are kept expressly to free the house of other vermin of their own race, and so ferocious are they in the onslaught they make, that few of the houses are ever annoyed by mice or rats.—Neal's Residence in Siam.

HALF A CENTURY IN BED.—The New York Observer states that Susan Pierson, of Bridgehampton, Long Island, died in February, last, at the advanced age of seventy-two years, during fifty-two of which she had not set her foot upon the floor. During that period, the extent of her travels, with the exception of a year spent in a neighbor's house, was from one corner of a room to another, in the arms of some strong man. This change was always attended by a loss of voice, from which she did not recover until after a night's repose. The best medical skill was unable to restore her health, or even to enable her to sit upright in bed.

"Aunt Susy," as she was called, was a humble, truthful child of God. Knitting was her almost constant employment, and her bible was ever by her side. During the entire term of her confinement she received the untiring attention of a sister, who survives her, and is now 80 years of age.

NEW YORK DISTRICT ATTORNEY.—The appointment of John McKeon as United States district attorney in New York is denounced by the New York papers, and causes great dissatisfaction among the New York democrats. At a meeting in Tammany Hall, resolutions denouncing the appointment as destitute of ability, and expressing impaired confidence in the administration were passed; three well known office holders voting in the affirmative. He is said to be of Irish descent and a Roman catholic.

BAPTIST MINISTER EXPELLED.—Rev. F. M. Haygood was recently put on trial, found guilty of heresy, and expelled from the Baptist church in Marietta, Ga., because he would neither assert nor deny that God foresees all things. The Rev. gentleman said in his defence that he could find no passage in Scripture which taught the doctrine, and he had no opinion, therefore, on the subject.

A VIOLENT CASE OF CHOLERA.—The Watrous Plain Dealer has the following decidedly rich thing:

Last week there were three cases of cholera in this village which terminated fatally, and, as it might be supposed, our citizens were a good deal alarmed; there not having been a death in the place for the three months preceding. A young man was found at one of our public houses a bed; apparently in distress. Dr. B., a fine old gentleman, who keeps his office across the way, was immediately called in; he examined the patient and pronounced it "a violent case of cholera," and started off for his drug shop, which he reached nearly out of breath in pursuit of his nostrums. Having supplied himself with the necessary "life preservers" he soon returned and administered to his patient a quantity of lobelia, and ordered the crowd to "strip him (immediately) and commence rubbing him with cayenne, &c., which they did in good earnest. While in the act of undressing him, a watch dropped from his pocket which the landlord had just missed as stolen from another room. This led some of the less credulous to doubt the extent of his sickness. The Dr. however, still insisted on its being cholera. The patient overheard the conversation about the stolen watch, and as it might naturally be expected, it struck in, and he continued to grow no better fast. Night came, the crowd dispersed, and he was left quite alone. He then scrambled out of bed, put on his clothes in all haste and made a straight yoke down the back stairs, showing a taller specimen of "tall walking" than has been exhibited in this village for a long time. The Dr. soon returned, but was somewhat surprised to learn that he had "lost his patient." The boys told him that he could no longer boast of "never having lost a patient," yet they were willing to admit that his last advice was necessary; which was that "the patient must have watched that night." We are told that the Doctor still insists on its being "a violent case of cholera, but inasmuch as the patient has not yet returned we are disposed to report the facts and leave it to the 'medical faculty' to decide what the nature of the 'malady' was."

NEW FASHIONED SAVINGS BANK.—The Buffalo Express of the 22d, gives an account of a savings bank, in operation in that city. The principle is new to us, however. Old it may be as an institution of the religious sect by whom it is organized and conducted. It appears that the catholics of that city have a servant girl's saving bank, which is conducted on a very profitable system for the banker. It does not seem to be quite as liberal as the miller who adopted the rule of taking the girl's of his customer and leaving him the toll. The case in point is that of a servant girl of the "Catholic faith" whom he had in his employ. She received her wages regularly for a long time, but never seemed to have any money or any increase to her wardrobe, other than such as she could not dispense with. Feeling an interest in her circumstances and conduct, which all good women should feel, her mistress undertook to interrogate her on some occasion which led to the subject, in relation to what disposition she made of her money—whether she loaned it, or put it in some saving institution. The girl replied that she deposited it with the priest of the congregation to which she belonged; and when she made her next deposit she brought the following rather indefinite certificate for the satisfaction of her mistress:

"I hereby make known that _____ has at different times, money deposited on St. Mary's church in sums as my books show."

Buffalo, 1854. P. JOS. HELMSPRACHT.

Further conversation with the girl elicited the fact that she made these deposits with the understanding that she was never to get any of it back, but was to become a sister of some holy order, after laboring a year for nothing, then giving in all her deposits, amounting to $85, and adding thereto $500, which she is to receive from the father land. She is not bound, however, to remain with them after the expiration of the year. She may, if she prefer it, go at large after that, for which liberty she is to relinquish to them all her property, amounting to $885, besides the year's labor. The writer presumes inquires, if there is no law to prevent banking under such a one-sided system as this.

A THRILLING INCIDENT.—We published a few days since an account of the hazardous exploit of a child which clambered upon a roof in New York, and was providentially rescued when death seemed imminent. A precisely similar incident occurred but a day or two since before our own eyes. An infant of not more than two years, unnoticed by its nurse, clambered upon the sill of a window in the third story of the hotel opposite our office, and there stood laughing and crowing, all heedless of the peril that threatened it. It was a slight to make strong men hold their breath. The slightest motion, a breath of air, the least fright, would have thrown it off its balance, and precipitated it upon the pavement below.

A crowd gathered and stood in speechless agony of suspense, expecting momentarily to see the child dashed to pieces. Meanwhile the infant stood boldly erect, and laughing, extended its hands as if inviting a romp with the spectators below. At last, when the sight had become agonizing, a female who had been sewing in the room where the window was, caught sight of the little creature, and with commendable coolness, instead of shrieking, and thus almost certainly bringing about the catastrophe, quietly stepped to the window and enclosed the child in her arms. One long, deep breath from the crowd showed the interest they had felt and the relief experienced.—Buff. Dem.

PALPABLE LIE.—The Terra Haute (Indiana) Express thus forcibly hits the tendency of the age to get ahead of Moses:

WONDERFUL GEOLOGICAL DISCOVERY.—A fossil frog has been discovered in the Washab bottom, several feet below the surface, with half a dozen strata of mud above him, to the formation of which, according to well established geological principles, a period of 6,000 years may be attributed. When this astounding ante-Adamite fossil was brought to light, all the live frogs gathered around it and exclaimed—"Pentateuch! Pentateuch! Ogi Humbergi! Enoch! Abimelech! Balaam! Amalek! Amalek!" thus expressing their utter disbelief in the Mosaic history. The ologians will have to disprove this new fact in science before they can go along.

PROMISING BOYS.—The Providence Journal of this morning alludes to the remarks of Mr. Butler to his former pupils, at Groton, on Wednesday last, Messrs. Abbott Lawrence, James Walker, Joel Parker, John P. Bigelow, Amos Kendall, Isaac Parker and Samuel Lawrence, and remarks that "a few school masters have the privilege of giving good advice to so many promising boys. They may yet, by proper diligence, make quite a figure in the world."

TURN YOUR FENCE POSTS.—It is mentioned as a curious fact that a farmer in Connecticut, who recently took up a fence after it had been standing fourteen years, found all those posts solid which had been inverted from the way in which they originally grew, while all those which had been set as they grew were rotted off at the bottom. Heads down, therefore, seems a specific against decay.

The Daily Gazette.

JANESVILLE : : : WISCONSIN.
FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 28, 1854.

Out of thirteen numbers of the Janesville Daily Gazette, now published, we have received three! Where is the fault—in the publishers or the mails?—Madison Journal.

In neither. We had made special arrangement to send our paper to Madison by the cars daily, and the above notice together with a letter received at the same time, from one of our subscribers at Madison, is the first hint we have had that they were not regularly and promptly delivered. We adopted this method and were at some trouble and expense in doing so, in order to serve our friends daily, instead of weekly as we should have to if dependent upon the mail for carrying them. We regret that the arrangement has proved a failure, and that we shall have to resort to the slow means provided by the post office department in future. Our contemporary hereafter will receive our paper as we do his, two at a time but three a week.

MORE IMPROVEMENT IN THE MAILS.—The eastern mail which leaves this city at half past ten in the forenoon, now remains in the Detroit post office over night, not reaching Chicago till the next day, and of course being delayed one day in arriving at its destination. A nice arrangement!

RAILROAD FREIGHTS.—The Chicago Tribune states that the Galena and Chicago railroad company have determined to advance the rate of transporting lumber, on its road, ten per cent., over the present charges, the advance to take effect on the first proximo.

The company has also issued an order that no more grain be shipped, in bulk, at any of the points along the road, except it be consigned to parties who have elevators convenient for receiving direct from the cars. This will force dealers to forward in bags.

THE MADISON DAILY ARGUS.—This paper comes to us enlarged and in an entire new dress. We wish its politics were as good as its typography, for in the latter respect it is not surpassed in the state. For its workmanlike appearance it acknowledges its indebtedness to Mr. F. B. Ward, the foreman of the office, and Mr. W. may well be proud of such a specimen of his labor. Our city printers must look out, or their country competitors will run away with the honors of the profession.

A villain calling himself McMurray, came into the village about two weeks since and took board as one of our principal hotels. He represented himself as having just returned from California, with gold in abundance. On one day last week he was married to a young lady whom he had never seen until within the period of his present visit to the village, and on Saturday two officers of justice from Lansingburg got upon his track and arrested him for theft and forgery. Last evening he took his departure for a more northern climate, with some very uncomfortable looking bracelets upon his wrists. This is what may be called doing things in a hurry.—Peekskill Republican.

We don't know which in this, and similar instances, is the most apparent,—the villain of the man or the folly of the woman. Both deserve punishment, and sympathy on either would be thrown away.

FOUR JURORS INDICTED FOR PERJURY.—The Louisville Courier is informed upon good authority, that the grand jury of Hardin county has indicted four of the notorious persons who composed the Ward jury, on a charge of perjury.—The names of only two could be ascertained, and these were McIntire and Edson.

The stone for McAdamizing Main street are now being hauled upon it. Every body is glad to see the improvement go on.

The vote in Whitewater last Tuesday upon taking stock in the Central railroad was 117 in favor and 37 against.

SALE OF STOCKS.—The stocks and bonds, hypotheicated by the Schuyler with Cornelius Vanderbilt, esq., for monies advanced by the latter, were sold at auction in Wall street, on Thursday last. Under the influence of the prevailing panic as to railroad securities, the prices realized were very low. Among the bonds sold were $15,000 7 per cent. of the Mineral Point railroad at 20.

The only daughter of ex-president Fillmore died of cholera on the morning of the 26th inst., at the village of Aurora, about twenty miles from Buffalo.

WASHINGTON MATTERS.—John Wentworth writes to his paper in Chicago the following among other things:

"The homestead bill 'still drags its slow length along' in the senate, to be amended so as not to apply to Kansas or else to be denied. The south gives up Nebraska, but will fight to the bitter end for slavery in Kansas. The homestead bill would be quite equal to a restoration of the Missouri compromise. The senators in the slave-raising interest, know this, and will kill the bill unless they can amend it in this particular. Some of our northern democrats, who voted for the Nebraska bill, pretend that they have been awfully cheated in relation to this bill. They pretend that they were promised that slavery should never go to Kansas, that the homestead bill should be passed, and that of itself would keep it out. They pretend that they only intended to vote for popular sovereignty in the abstract, and never dreamt of the spread of slavery. I look upon the homestead bill, so far as applicable to the new territories, now as entirely defeated."

The panorama advertised by us for some time past will be exhibited at Apollo Hall to night. We gather from notices where it has been shown, that it is worth seeing. The other enhances the reader can estimate for himself.

Wool.—The attention of wool growers is directed to the advertisement of Mr. Story, who wants to purchase.

THE MADISON CONVENTION.—The mass convention of anti-Nebraska men and such as oppose, derogating the energies, means and official powers of government to the end of oversteering the continent of America with negroes, held at Madison on the 15th inst., was more largely attended than was expected, considering the busy season. Reasonable harmony and enthusiasm prevailed.

We are disappointed that more wind-broken, political libertines were not present. We are glad of it because their very touch entails a hereditary reproach that generations unborn are doomed to suffer from as are the ancestors. They have generally been bought up however, by the opposite side, where they will be kept on state pay, where it is best to keep them for the present, and where it only costs the people of the state about 100,000 dollars a year to keep them.

Of those who serve God like the very devil, or else the devil like a very god, only a few happened to be on hand—we allude to fanatics.—Their incendiary proposals were promptly voted down.

We preferred that the convention declare for a modification of the fugitive slave law, rather than for its repeal. Let that law be amended so as to provide for trial by jury for the slave's liberty, and it is well enough. It is an abominable law however in another particular—we refer to the part providing for the United States to pay expenses for the recovery of runaway negroes. That provision might be expurgated; negroes are property, and when they run away they ought to be recovered at claimants' expense the same as our horses are. It's a mean law, but by amending may be well enough—so may the devil's decalogue.

The clause recommending no support to be given to any man, whose personal character and conduct is not a guarantee that he is reliable, is most worthy and sensible. We never saw the like in any platform before—in fact platforms are intended to accomplish an opposite purpose—a selection of the chief misdeeds and those most certain to be without any personal character whomever to rely. We are down on platforms for empty mountebanks to mount upon, but there can be no harm done by a honest declaration of principles, such as the one framed at Madison.—Grant County Herald.

THE WHITE PLATFORM.—The white state committee of Pennsylvania, have issued an address, to the people setting forth the principles which are to guide the whigs of the state in the ensuing canvass.

They may be summed up as follows:
1. The doctrine of the act of 1780, which abolished slavery on account of its sinfulness, injustice and anti-republicanism.
2. To return to the beneficent and anti-slavery national policy of the ordinance of 1787.
3. A repeal of the aggressive portions of the Nebraska bill, and a restoration of the national territory to freedom.
4. The extension of the habeas corpus and jury trial to persons claimed as fugitive slaves.
5. The assertion of the due rights of the states, north as well as south.

A FEARFUL VOYAGE OVER THE FALLS OF ST. ANTHONY.—We learn from Col. Stevens of Minneapolis, that on Saturday night a man named Hickey, undertook to cross the Mississippi above the falls of St. Anthony, in a skiff. Being unacquainted with the channel, and bewildered by the darkness, his boat was drawn into the swift current above the falls, where all his efforts to extricate himself proved unavailing, and he was forced to take the frightful plunge into the water below. Strange as it may seem, he was neither killed nor drowned, but by some means, which we did not learn, succeeded in reaching the shore almost entirely unharmed. This is, we believe, the first time that any person has ever been known to go over the falls and escape with life. Since the days of Annapolis, the descent has been regarded as certain death, and Mr. Hickey may certainly congratulate himself for having done "some things" with more success than Sam Patch did "others." The early writers at Niagara assert that Indians had been known to go over those falls with their canoes in safety. This is now pretty generally regarded as fiction, especially by visitors; but let no man henceforth deny that St. Anthony has been the scene of a corresponding feat.—St. Anthony Dem. 27th inst.

WAKING UP THE WRONG PASSENGER.—On Saturday, a city constable by the name of Cassidy, having "the papers" for an individual named in the writ, and far from being considered a "Know Nothing" appeared to know more than the law allowed him and arrested another man. Though frequently told of his mistake by respectable and well known citizens yet he persisted in taking his customer before the magistrate, who of course immediately discharged the gentleman from custody.

The recent prisoner, thinking that one good turn deserved another, immediately had the constable arrested and taken before the proper court, where after proper hearing he was held to answer in the sum of a cool two hundred, which security not being forthcoming, the knowing gentleman was locked up in default.—Chicago Journal.

A HUMAN CANDLE.—The Chinese Repository tells a very good story of the punishment inflicted on a Chinese criminal. His offence, it seems, was unpardonable, and it was determined to make an example of him. Consequently he was wound round with cotton, saturated with tallow, and having been dipped in it he presented the appearance of a gigantic candle; was stuck up on his father's grave and lighted. Of course, the poor fellow perished in slow torture. "Was ever device heard of so completely diabolical?"

DEATH OF THE SCOTCH GIANT.—We learn from the Laporte Whig of the 19th inst., that the well known Scotch giant who has traveled through the country for some years for the purpose of exhibition, died at that place the day previous. He had stopped at the Teegarden house with his wife somewhat overcome with the heat and dust. During the evening he asked for some water and immediately fell dead upon the floor. His remains were taken to his residence in Wisconsin.

The California papers brought per last steamer, in commenting upon the acquittal of Ward for the murder of Butler in Kentucky, say it goes ahead of anything in the annals of California "Justice." That's true enough; 24 hours of "Justice" would be quite equal to a restoration of the Missouri compromise. The senators in the slave-raising interest, know this, and will kill the bill unless they can amend it in this particular. Some of our northern democrats, who voted for the Nebraska bill, pretend that they have been awfully cheated in relation to this bill. They pretend that they were promised that slavery should never go to Kansas, that the homestead bill should be passed, and that of itself would keep it out. They pretend that they only intended to vote for popular sovereignty in the abstract, and never dreamt of the spread of slavery. I look upon the homestead bill, so far as applicable to the new territories, now as entirely defeated."

BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK, July 25.
BOMBARDMENT OF GREYTOWN.—The Prometheus, which arrived last night, reports that Greytown was bombarded by the U. S. ship of war Cyane, and was afterwards set on fire and destroyed, because the authorities would not make apologies for the insult to Mr. Boland.—Three English vessels witnessed the bombardment, but offered no resistance. No lives were lost, nor did the inhabitants repel the attack in any way whatever.

Late advices from Mexico deny the death of Gen. Alvarez.

WASHINGTON, July 25.
The sergeant-at-arms of the house of representatives has sent to New York for witnesses to testify as to the alleged alterations of the bill granting lands to Minnesota for the construction of railroads.

WASHINGTON, July 26.
The examination of Col. Turner before the committee of investigation in relation to the alteration of the Minnesota land bill has been concluded, and the accused exonerated from all censure.

In the House, Mr. Fletcher moved a suspension of the rules, in order to enable him to introduce a bill repealing the one granting lands to Minnesota for railroad purposes. The vote was taken and motion lost—Ayes 40, nays 60; not a two-thirds vote.

A RICH SCENE.—During the performance of Franconia's Hippodrome the other day at Niles, Michigan, the tent was prostrated upon the performers and spectators by a violent gale of wind. The Republican makes the following note of what followed:
"The scene which followed can hardly be described. Ladies who had on their very best—their white silks, their finest ribbons and best hats, prinked up in the latest style, drove out from under on all sides, as wet as if they had been through a mill pond. Gents, with collars detached, cutting the cars, in their best rig, forgot the fair dames at their sides, and scrambled as for their lives, seeming to care only for their feet. They came out with wild collars, and water dripping from them. The scene described by those who happened to be in the houses adjoining as most laughable. One or two ladies, whose names we did not learn, were slightly injured."

The New York Courier and Enquirer of Saturday, gives a comparative table of the prices of some of the leading stocks at the close of each of the last four weeks. We copy the extremes, as to a few of them:

	July 16.	July 21.
N. Y. & Erie R. R. stocks,	68 1/2	51
N. Y. Central	101	91
Michigan Central	99	85
Michigan Southern	119	90
Hudson River	62	50
Illinois Central	116	70
Illinois Central Bonds	75	69
Crystal Palace	22	51

THE APPREHENDED VETO.—Mr. Wentworth, writing from Washington says:

"The Nebraska democrats of the north-west, are furious to have the president sign the bill. They say that it is the only thing that will save them, that it is hard work to stand up against the extension of slavery in Kansas and that a veto on top of that would be entirely ruinous. If the supplications, and even tears of these men will save this bill, it is safe enough. They beg hard."

What a spectacle it would present to the democracy of the north-west blubbering like school boys at the foot of Mr. Pierce, and supplicating him not to veto the harbor bill! The sorrows of Weller would be nothing to it. Under the circumstances, it would be a crying sin to have the president veto the bill.—Chicago Jour.

LOCATION OF THE LUNATIC ASYLUM.—We learn that the commissioners of the lunatic asylum have concluded to locate it upon a tract of land belonging to Ex-Governor Farwell, across the Fourth lake, in the vicinity of McBride's point. The lot contains one hundred acres, fronting upon the lake, and it is a spot of unsurpassed natural loveliness. The scenery is bold and beautiful, the land of great fertility, and now covered with native forest trees.

The state pays to Mr. Farwell $1500 for the site, which is worth at least $50 per acre. We consider this selection a good one, and the best that, under all the circumstances, could be made. The preparation of the ground, and the erection of suitable buildings, will be immediately commenced.—Madison Argus, Tuesday.

PET RATS.—I was astonished on visiting the house of some of the inhabitants to see a huge rat walking quietly around the room, and crawling up the master's legs in a cool, familiar manner. Instead of repulsing it or giving any alarm, he took it up in his hands and caressed it; and then I learnt for the first time, and to my utter astonishment, that it was a custom in Bangkok to keep pet rats, which are taken very young and carefully reared, till they attain a perfectly monstrous size from good and plentiful feeding. These domestic rats are kept expressly to free the house of other vermin of their own race, and so ferocious are they in the onslaught they make, that few of the houses are ever annoyed by mice or rats.—Ned's Residence in Siam.

HALF A CENTURY IN THE.—The New York Observer states that Susan Pierson, of Bridgehampton, Long Island, died in February last, at the advanced age of seventy-two years, during fifty-two of which she had not set her foot upon the floor. During that period, the extent of her travels, with the exception of a year spent in a neighbor's house, was from one corner of a room to another, in the arms of some strong man. This change was always attended by a loss of voice, from which she did not recover until after a night's repose. The best medical skill was unable to restore her health, or even to enable her to sit upright in bed.
"Aunt Susy," as she was called, was an humble, truthful child of God. Knitting was her almost constant employment, and her bible was over by her side. During the entire term of her confinement she received the untiring attention of a sister, who survives her, and is now 80 years of age.

NEW YORK DISTRICT ATTORNEY.—The appointment of John McKeon as United States district attorney in New York is denounced by the New York papers, and causes great dissatisfaction among the New York democrats. At a meeting in Tammany Hall, resolutions denouncing the appointment as destitute of ability, and expressing impaired confidence in the administration were passed; three well known office holders voting in the affirmative. He is said to be of Irish descent and a Roman catholic.

BAPTIST MINISTER EXPELLED.—Rev. F. M. Haygood was recently put on trial, found guilty of heresy, and expelled from the Baptist church in Marietta, Ga., because he would not assert nor deny that God foresaw all things. The Rev. gentleman said in his defence that he could find no passage in scripture which taught the doctrine, and he had no opinion, therefore, on the subject.

"A VIOLENT CASE OF CHOLERA."—The Waukesha Plain Dealer has the following decidedly bad thing:

Last week there were three cases of cholera in this village which terminated fatally, and, as it might be supposed, our citizens were in a good deal alarmed; there not having been a death in the place for the three months preceding. A young man was found at one of our public houses a bed; apparently in distress. Dr. B., a fine old gentleman, who keeps his office across the way, was immediately called in; he examined the patient and pronounced it "a violent case of cholera," and started off for his drug shop, which he reached nearly out of breath in pursuit of his nostrums. Having supplied himself with the necessary "life preservers" he soon returned and administered to his patient a quantity of lobelia, and ordered the crowd to "ship him immediately" and commence rubbing him with cayenne, &c.—which they did in good earnest. While in the act of addressing him, a watch dropped from his pocket which the landlord had just missed as stolen from another room. This led some of the less credulous to doubt the extent of his sickness. The Dr. however, still insisted on his being cholera. The patient overheard the conversation about the stolen watch and as it might naturally be expected, "it struck in," and he continued to grow no better fast. Night came, the crowd dispersed, and he was left quite alone. He then scrambled out of bed, put on his clothes in all haste and made a straight way down the back stairs; showing a taller specimen of tall walking than has been exhibited in this village for a long time. The Dr. soon returned but was somewhat surprised to learn that he had "lost his patient." The boys told him that he could no longer boast of "never having lost a patient," yet they were willing to admit that his last advice was necessary; which was that "the patient must have watched that night." We are told that the Doctor still insists on its being "a violent case of cholera," but inasmuch as the patient has not yet returned we are disposed to report the facts and leave it to the "medical faculty" to decide what the nature of the malady was.

NEW FASHIONED SAVINGS BANK.—The Buffalo Express of the 22d, gives an account of a savings bank, in operation in that city. The principle is new to us, however old it may be as an institution of the religious sect by whom it is organized and conducted. It appears that the catholics of that city have a servant girl's saving bank, which is conducted on a very profitable system for the banker. It does not seem to be quite as liberal as the miller was who adopted the rule of taking the gift of his customer and leaving him the toll. The case in point is that of a servant girl of the catholic faith, whom he had in his employ. She received her wages regularly for a long time, but never seemed to have any money or any increase to her wardrobe, other than such as she could not dispense with. Feeling an interest in her circumstances and conduct, which all good women should feel, her mistress undertook to interrogate her on some occasion which led to the subject, in relation to what disposition she made of her money—whether she loaned it, or put it in some saving institution. The girl replied that she deposited it with the priest of the congregation to which she belonged; and when she made her next deposit she brought the following rather indefinite certificate for the satisfaction of her mistress:

"I hereby make known that—has at different times, moneys deposited on St. Mary's church in sums as my books show."
Buffalo, 1854. P. JOS. HELMPPRECHT."

Further conversation with the girl elicited the fact that she made these deposits with the understanding that she was never to get any of it back, but was to become a sister of some holy order, after laboring a year for nothing, then giving in all her deposits, amounting to $85, and adding thereto $500, which she is to receive from the father land. She is not bound, however, to remain with the church after the expiration of her year, for which she is to be released; but to them all her property, amounting to $885, besides the year's labor. The writer pertinently inquires, if there is no law to prevent banking under such a one-sided system as this.

A THRILLING INCIDENT.—We published a few days since an account of the hazardous exploit of a child which clambered upon a roof in New York, and was providentially rescued when death seemed imminent. A precisely similar incident occurred but a day or two since before our own eyes. An infant of not more than two years, unnoticed by its nurse, clambered upon the sill of a window in the third story of the hotel opposite our office, and there stood laughing and crowing, all heedless of the peril that threatened it. It was a sight to make strong men hold their breath. The slightest motion, a breath of air, the least fright, would have thrown it off its balance, and precipitated it upon the pavement below.

A crowd gathered and stood in speechless agony of suspense, expecting momentarily to see the child dashed to pieces. Meanwhile the infant stood boldly erect, and laughing, extended its hands as if inviting a romp with the spectators below. At last, when the sight had become agonizing, a female who had been sewing in the room where the window was, caught sight of the little creature, and with commendable coolness instead of shrieking, and thus almost certainly bringing about the catastrophe, quietly stepped to the window and enclosed the child in her arms. One long, deep breath from the crowd showed the interest they had felt and the relief experienced.—Buff. Dem.

PALPABLE HIT.—The Tetra Haute (Indiana) Express thus foreshadow the tendency of the age to get ahead of Moses:

A VOICE OF GEOLOGICAL DISCOVERY.—A fossil frog has been discovered in the Wabash bottom, several feet below the surface, with half a dozen strata of mud above him, to the formation of which, according to well established geological principles, a period of 6,000 years may be attributed. When this astounding ante-Adamic fossil was brought to light, all the live frogs gathered around it and exclaimed—"Pentateuch! Pentateuch! O! Hump! Enoch! Abimelech! Balch! Amek! Amek!" thus expressing their utter disbelief in the Mosaic history. The ologians will have to disprove this new fact in science before they can go along.

PROMISING BOYS.—The Providence Journal of this morning alludes to the remarks of Mr. Butler to his former pupils, at Groton, on Wednesday last. Messrs. Abbott Lawrence, James Walker, Joel Parker, John P. Bigelow, Amos Kendall, Isaac Parker and Samuel Lawrence, and remarks that "few school masters have the privilege of giving good advice to so many promising boys. They may yet, by proper diligence, make quite a figure in the world."

TURN YOUR FENCE POSTS.—It is mentioned as a curious fact that a farmer in Connecticut, who recently took up a fence after it had been standing fourteen years, found all those posts solid which had been inverted from the way in which they originally grew, while all those which had been set as they grew were rotted off at the bottom. Heads down, therefore, seems a specific against decay.

Out of thirteen numbers of the Janesville Daily Gazette, now published, we have received three! Who is the fault—in the publishers or the mails?—Madison Journal.

In neither. We had made special arrangement to send our paper to Madison by the cars daily, and the above notice together with a letter received at the same time, from one of our subscribers at Madison, is the first hint we have had that they were not regularly and promptly delivered. We adopted this method and were at some trouble and expense in doing so, in order to serve our friends daily, instead of tri-weekly as we should have to if dependent upon the mail for carrying them. We regret that this arrangement has proved a failure, and that we shall have to resort to the slow means provided by the post office department, in future. Our contemporary hereafter will receive our paper as we do his, two at a time but three a week.

More Improvement in the Mails.—The eastern mail which leaves this city at half past ten in the forenoon, now remains in the Beloit post office over night, not reaching Chicago till the next day, and of course being delayed one day in arriving at its destination. A nice arrangement!

Railroad Freight.—The Chicago Tribune states that the Galena and Chicago railroad company have determined to advance the rate of transporting lumber, on its road, ten per cent., over the present charges, the advance to take effect on the first proximo.

The company has also issued an order that no more grain be shipped, in bulk, at any of the points along the road, except it be consigned to parties who have elevators convenient for receiving direct from the cars. This will force dealers to forward in bags.

The Madison Daily Argus.—This paper comes to us enlarged and in an entire new dress. We wish its politics were as good as its typography, for in the latter respect it is not surpassed in the state. For its workmanlike appearance it acknowledges its indebtedness to Mr. F. B. Ward, the foreman of the office, and Mr. W. may well be proud of such a specimen of his labor. Our city printers must look out, or their country competitors will run away with the honors of the profession.

A villain calling himself McMurray, came into the village about two weeks since and took board at one of our principal hotels. He represented himself as having just returned from California, with gold in abundance. On one day last week he was married to a young lady whom he had never seen until within the period of his present visit to the village, and on Saturday two officers of justice from Lansingburg got upon his track and arrested him for theft and forgery. Last evening he took his departure for a more northern climate, with some very uncomfortable looking bracelets upon his wrists. This is what may be called doing things in a hurry.—Peekskill Republican.

We don't know which in this, and similar instances, is the most apparent,—the villainy of the man or the folly of the woman. Both deserve punishment, and sympathy on either would be thrown away.

Four Juniors Indicted for Perjury.—The Louisville Courier is informed upon good authority, that the grand jury of Hardin county has indicted four of the notorious persons who composed the Ward jury, on a charge of perjury.—The names of only two could be ascertained, and these were McIntire and Edson.

The stone for McAdamizing Main street are now being hauled upon it. Every body is glad to see the improvement go on.

The vote in Whitewater last Tuesday upon taking stock in the Central railroad was 117 in favor and 37 against.

Sale of Stocks.—The stocks and bonds, hypotheated by the Schuylers with Cornelius Vanderbilt, eq., for monies advanced by the latter, were sold at auction in Wall street, on Thursday last. Under the influence of the prevailing panic as to railroad securities, the prices realized were very low. Among the bonds sold were $15,000 7 per cent. of the Mineral Point railroad at 20.

The only daughter of ex-president Fillmore died of cholera on the morning of the 26th inst., at the village of Aurora, about twenty miles from Buffalo.

Washington Matters.—John Wentworth writes to his paper in Chicago the following among other things:

"The homestead bill 'still drags its slow length along' in the senate, to be avenged so as not to apply to Kansas or else to be beaten.—The south gives up Nebraska, but will fight to the bitter end for slavery in Kansas. The homestead bill would be equal to a restoration of the Missouri compromise. The senators in the slave-ridden interest, know this, and will kill the bill unless they can amend it in this particular. Some of our northern democrats, who voted for the Nebraska bill, pretend that they have been awfully cheated in relation to this bill. They pretend that they were promised that slavery should never go to Kansas, and that of itself would keep it out. They pretend that they only intended to vote for popular sovereignty in the abstract, and never dreamt of the spread of slavery. I look upon the homestead bill, so far as applicable to the new territories, now as entirely defeated."

The panorama advertised by us for some time past will be exhibited at Apollo Hall to-night. We gather from notices where it has been shown, that it is worth seeing. The other chances the reader can estimate for himself.

Wool.—The attention of wool growers is directed to the advertisement of Mr. Story, who wants to purchase.

THE MADISON CONVENTION.—The mass convention of anti-Nebraska men and such as oppose devoting the energies, means and official powers of government to the end of overruling the continent of America with negroes, held at Madison on the 13th inst., was more largely attended than was expected, considering the busy season. Reasonable harmony and enthusiasm prevailed.

We are disappointed that more wind-blown, political libertines were not present. We are glad of it because their very touch entails a hereditary leprosy that generations unborn are as doomed to suffer from as are the ancestors.—They have generally been bought up however, by the opposite side, where they will be kept on state pay, where it is best to keep them for the present, and where it only costs the people of the state about 100,000 dollars a year to keep them.

Of those who serve God like the very devil, or else the devil like a very good, only a few happened to be on hand—we allude to fanatics.—Their incendiary proposals were promptly voted down.

We preferred that the convention declare for a modification of the fugitive-slave law, rather than for its repeal. Let that law be amended so as to provide for trial by jury for the slave's liberty, and it is well enough. It is an abominable law however in another particular—we refer to the part providing for the United States to pay expenses for the recovery of runaway negroes. That provision might be expurgated; negroes are property, and when they run away they ought to be recovered at claimants' expense the same as our horses are. It's a mean law, but by amending may be well enough—so may the devil's decalogue.

The clause recommending no support to be given to any man, "whose personal character and conduct is not a guaranty that he is reliable," is most worthy and sensible. We never saw the like in any platform before—in fact platforms are intended to accomplish an opposite purpose—a selection of the chief scandals and those most certain to be without any personal character whereon to rely. We are down on platforms for empty mountebanks to mount upon, but there can be no harm done by an honest declaration of principles, such as the one framed at Madison.—Grant County Herald.

THE WHIG PLATFORM.—The whig state committee of Pennsylvania, have issued an address to the people setting forth the principles which are to guide the whigs of the state in the ensuing canvass.

They may be summed up as follows:

1. The doctrine of the act of 1790, which abolished slavery on account of its sinfulness, injustice and anti-republicanism.
2. To return to the beneficent and anti-slavery national policy of the ordinance of 1787.
3. A repeal of the aggressive portions of the Nebraska bill, and a restoration of the national territory to freedom.
4. The extension of the habeas corpus and jury trial to persons claimed as fugitive slaves.
5. The assertion of the due rights of the states, north as well as south.

A FEARFUL VOYAGE OVER THE FALLS OF ST. ANTHONY.—We learn from Col. Stevens of Minneapolis, that on Saturday night a man named Hickey, undertook to cross the Mississippi above the falls of St. Anthony, in a skiff. Being unacquainted with the channel, and bewildered by the darkness, his boat was drawn into the swift current above the falls, where all his efforts to extricate himself proved unavailing, and he was forced to take the frightful plunge into the water below. Strung as it may seem, he was neither killed nor drowned, but by some means, which we did not learn, succeeded in regaining the shore almost entirely unharmed. This is, we believe, the first time that any person has ever been known to go over the falls and escape with life. Since the days of Amparo Sapa, the descent has been regarded as certain death, and Mr. Hickey may certainly congratulate himself for having done "some things" with more success than Sam Patch did "others." The early writers at Niagara assert that Indians had been known to go over those falls with their canoes in safety. This is now pretty generally regarded as fiction, especially by visitors; but let no man henceforth deny that St. Anthony has been the scene of a corresponding feat.—St. Anthony Dem. 27th inst.

WAKING UP THE WRONG PASSENGER.—On Saturday, a city constable by the name of Cassidy, having "the papers" for an individual named in the writ, and far from being considered a "Know Nothing" appeared to know more than the law allowed him and arrested another man. Though frequently told of his mistake by respectable and well known citizens yet he persisted in taking his customer before the magistrate, who of course immediately discharged the gentleman from custody.

The recent prisoner, thinking that one good turn deserved another, immediately had the constable arrested and taken before the proper court, where after proper hearing he was held to answer in the sum of a cool two hundred, which security not being forthcoming, the knowing gentleman was locked up in default.—Chicago Journal.

A HUMAN CANDLE.—The Chinese Repository tells a very good story of the punishment inflicted on a Chinese criminal. His offense, it seems, was unpardonable, and it was determined to make an example of him. Consequently he was wound round with cotton, saturated with tallow, and having been dipped till he presented the appearance of a gigantic candle, was stuck up on his father's grave and lighted. Of course, the poor fellow perished in slow torture. Was ever device heard of so completely diabolical?

DEATH OF THE SCOTCH GIANT.—We learn from the Laporte Whig of the 19th inst., that the well known Scotch giant who has traveled through the country for some years for the purpose of exhibition, died at that place the day previous. He had stopped at the Teegarden house with his wife somewhat overcome with the heat and dust. During the evening he asked for some water and immediately fell dead upon the floor. His remains were taken to his residence in Wisconsin.

The California papers brought per last steamer, in commenting upon the acquittal of Ward for the murder of Butler in Kentucky, say it goes ahead of anything in the annals of California "justice." That's true enough; 21 hours after such an outrage on humanity, in that country, would find the guilty "in his last sleep." Mob law is justice sometimes.—Pebotat Repub.

It will be instructive to follow the jurymen who disgraced Kentucky on the trial of Matt Ward. One has stultified himself to avoid the indignation of the world, and we notice by the Louisville Courier that four have been indicted for perjury.

Not long since an eastern man on his way to Boston, was stopped on the highway by a robber, who requested him to hand over his money or he would blow out his brains. "O," said the traveler quickly, "blow away; it's better to go to Boston without brains than without money."

BY TELEGRAPH.

New York, July 25.

BOMBARDMENT OF GREYTOWN.—The Prometheus, which arrived last night, reports that Greytown was bombarded by the U. S. ship-of-war Cyane, and was afterwards set on fire and destroyed, because the authorities would not make apologies for this insult to Mr. Boland.—Three English vessels witnessed the bombardment, but offered no resistance. No lives were lost, nor did the inhabitants repel the attack in any way whatever.

Late advices from Mexico deny the death of Gen. Alvarez.

WASHINGTON, July 25.
The sergeant-at-arms of the house of representatives has sent to New York for witnesses to testify as to the alleged alterations of the bill granting lands to Minnesota for the construction of railroads.

WASHINGTON, July 26.
The examination of Col. Forney before the committee of investigation in relation to the alteration of the Minnesota land bill has been concluded, and the accused exonerated from all censure.

In the House, Mr. Fletcher moved a suspension of the rules, in order to enable him to introduce a bill repealing the one granting lands to Minnesota for railroad purposes. The vote was taken and motion lost—Ayes 40, nays 60; not a two-third vote.

A RICH SCENE.—During the performance of Franco's Hippodrome the other day at Niles, Michigan, the tent was prostrated upon the performers and spectators by a violent gale of wind. The Republican makes the following note of what followed:

"The scene which followed can hardly be described. Ladies who had on their very best—their white silks, their finest ribbons and best hats, prinked up in the latest style, drove out from under on all sides, as wet as if they had been through a mill pond. Gents, with collars scratched, cutting the entrails in their best rig, forgot the fair dames at their sides, and scrambled for their lives, seeming to care only for dearself. They came out with wilted collars, and water dripping from them. The scene is described by those who happened to be in the houses adjoining as most laughable. One or two ladies, whose names we did not learn, were slightly injured."

The New York Courier and Enquirer of Saturday, gives a comparative table of the prices of some of the leading stocks at the close of each of the last four weeks. We copy the extremes, as to a few of them:

	July 16.	July 21.
N. Y. & Erie R. R. stocks,	68 1/2	50
N. Y. Central do.	101	91
Michigan Central do.	90	85
Michigan Southern do.	110	90
Hudson River do.	42	50
Illinois Central do.	116	70
Illinois Central Bonds	75	68
Crystal Palace	22	51

THE APPREHENDED VETO.—Mr. Wentworth, writing from Washington says:

"The Nebraska democrats of the north-west, are furious to have the president sign the bill.—They say that it is the only thing that will save them, that it is hard work to stand up against the extension of slavery in Kansas and that a veto on top of that would be entirely ruinous.—If the supplications, and even tears of these men will save the bill, it is safe enough. They beg hard."

What a spectacle it would present to the democracy of the north-west blubbering like school boys at the feet of Mr. Pierce, and supplicating him not to veto the harbor bill! The sorrows of Webster would be nothing to it. Under the circumstances, it would be a crying sin to have the president veto the bill.—Chicago Jour.

LOCATION OF THE LUNATIC ASYLUM.—We learn that the commissioners of the lunatic asylum have concluded to locate it upon a tract of land belonging to Ex-Governor Farwell, across the Fourth lake, in the vicinity of McBride's point. The lot contains one hundred acres, fronting upon the lake, and it is a spot of unsurpassed natural loveliness. The scenery is bold and beautiful, the land of great fertility, and now covered with native forest trees.

The state pays to Mr. Farwell $1500 per acre, which is worth at least $50 per acre. We consider this selection a good one, and the best that, under all the circumstances, could be made. The preparation of the ground, and the erection of suitable buildings, will be immediately commenced.—Madison Argus, Tuesday.

PET RATS.—I was astonished on visiting the house of some of the inhabitants to see a huge rat walking quietly around the room, and crawling up the master's legs in a cool, familiar manner. Instead of repelling it or giving any alarm, he took it up in his hands and caressed it; and then I learnt for the first time, and to my utter astonishment, that it was a custom in Bangkok to keep pet rats, which are taken very young and carefully reared, till they attain a perfectly monstrous size from good and plentiful feeding. These domestic rats are kept expressly to free the house of other vermin of their own race, and so ferocious are they in the onslaught they make, that few of the houses are ever annoyed by mice or rats.—Neal's Residence in Siam.

HALF A CENTURY IN BED.—The New York Observer states that Susan Pierson, of Bridgehampton, Long Island, died in February last, at the advanced age of seventy-two years, during fifty-two of which she had not set her foot upon the floor. During that period, the extent of her travels, with the exception of a year spent in a neighbor's house, was from one corner of a room to another, in the arms of some strong man. This change was always attended by a loss of voice, from which she did not recover until after a night's repose. The best medical skill was unable to restore her health, or even to enable her to sit upright in bed.

"Aunt Susy," as she was called, was an humble, truthful child of God. Knitting was her almost constant employment, and her bible was ever by her side. During the entire term of her confinement she received the untiring attention of a sister, who survives her, and is now 80 years of age.

NEW YORK DISTRICT ATTORNEY.—The appointment of John McKeon as United States district attorney in New York is denounced by the New York papers, and causes great dissatisfaction among the New York democrats. At a meeting in Tammany Hall, resolutions denouncing the appointee as destitute of ability, and expressing impaired confidence in the administration were passed; three well known office holders voting in the affirmative. He is said to be of Irish descent and a Roman catholic.

BAPTIST MINISTER EXPELLED.—Rev. F. M. Haygood was recently put on trial, found guilty of heresy, and expelled from the Baptist church, in Marietta, Ga., because he would neither assert nor deny that God foresaw all things. The Rev. gentleman said in his defense that he could find no passage in Scripture which taught the doctrine, and he had no opinion, therefore, on the subject.

A VIOLENT CASE OF CHOLERA.—The Waukesha Plain Dealer has the following decidedly "rich" thing:

Last night there were three cases of cholera in this village which terminated fatally, and as it might be supposed, our citizens were a good deal alarmed; there had, however, been a death in the place for the three months preceding. A young man was found at one of our public houses a bed; apparently in distress. Dr. H., a fine old gentleman, who keeps his office across the way, was immediately called in; he examined the patient and pronounced it "a violent case of cholera," and started off for his drug shop, which he reached nearly out of breath in pursuit of his nostrums. "Having supplied himself with the necessary 'life preservers' he soon returned and administered to his patient a quantity of lobelia, and ordered the crowd to 'strip him immediately' and commence rubbing him with any means, &c.—which they did in good earnest. While in the act of undressing him, a watch dropped from his pocket which the landlady just missed as stolen from another room. This led some of the less credulous to doubt the extent of his sickness. The Dr. however, still insisted on its being cholera. The people overheard the conversation about the stolen watch and as it might naturally be expected, 'it struck in,' and he continued to grow no better fast. Night came, the crowd dispersed, and he was left quite alone. He then scrambled out of bed, put on his clothes in all haste and made a straight wake down the back stairs; showing a tatter specimen of 'fall walking' than has been exhibited in this village for a long time. The Dr. soon returned, but was somewhat surprised to learn that he had 'loathed his patient.' The boys told him that he could no longer boast of 'never having lost a patient,' yet they were willing to admit that his last advice was necessary; which was that 'the patient must have watches that night.' We are told that the Doctor still insists on his being 'a violent case of cholera,' but inasmuch as the patient has not yet returned we are disposed to report the facts and leave it to the 'medical faculty' to decide what the nature of the malady was.

NEW FASHIONED SAVINGS BANK.—The Buffalo Express of the 22d, gives an account of a savings bank, in operation in that city. The principle is new to us, however old it may be as an institution of the religious sect by whom it is organized and conducted. It appears that the Catholics of that city have a servant girl's saving bank, which is conducted on a very profitable system for the banker. It does not seem to be quite as liberal as the miller who adopted the rule of taking the grist of his customer and leaving him the toll. The case in point is that of a servant girl of the catholic faith, whom he had in his employ. She received her wages regularly for a long time, but never seemed to have any money or any increase to her wardrobe, other than such as she could not dispense with. Feeling an interest in her circumstances and conduct, which all good women should feel, her mistress undertook to interrogate her on some occasion which led to the subject, in relation to what disposition she made of her money—whether she loaned it, or put it in some saving institution. The girl replied that she deposited it with the priest of the congregation to which she belonged; and when she made her next deposit she brought the following rather indefinite certificate for the satisfaction of her mistress:

"I hereby make known that—has at different times, money deposited on St. Mary's church in sums as my books show."

Further conversation with the girl elicited the fact that she made these deposits with the understanding that she was never to get any of it back, but was to become a sister of some holy order, after laboring a year for nothing, then giving in all her deposits, amounting to $55, and adding thereto $500, which she is to receive from the father land. She is not bound, however, to remain with them after the expiration of the year. She may, if she prefer it, go at large after that, for which liberty she is to relinquish to them all her property, amounting to $855, besides the year's labor. The writer pertinently inquires, if there is no law to prevent banking under such a one-sided system as this.

A THRILLING INCIDENT.—We published a few days since an account of the hazardous exploit of a child which clambered upon a roof in New York, and was providentially rescued when death seemed imminent. A precisely similar incident occurred but a day or two since before our own eyes. An infant of not more than two years, unnoticed by its nurse, clambered upon the sill of a window in the third story of the hotel opposite our office, and there stood laughing and crowing, all heedless of the peril that threatened it. It was a slight to make strong men hold their breath. The slightest motion, a breath of air, the least fright, would have thrown it off its balance, and precipitated it upon the pavement below.

A crowd gathered and stood in speechless agony of suspense, expecting momentarily to see the child dashed to pieces. Meanwhile the infant stood boldly erect, and laughing, extended its hands as if inviting a romp with the spectators below. At last, when the sight had become agonizing, a female who had been sewing in the room where the window was, caught sight of the little creature, and with commendable coolness, instead of shrieking, and thus almost certainly bringing about the catastrophe, quietly stepped to the window and enclosed the child in her arms. One long, deep breath from the crowd showed the interest they had felt and the relief experienced.—Buff. Dem.

PALPABLE HIT.—The Terra Haute (Indiana) Express thus forcibly hits the tendency of the age: We get ahead of Moses!

WONDERFUL GEOLOGICAL DISCOVERY.—A fossil frog has been discovered in the Wabash bottom, several feet below the surface, with half a dozen strata of mud above him, to the formation of which, according to well established geological principles, a period of 6,000 years may be attributed. When this astounding ante-Adamic fossil was brought to light, all the live frogs gathered around it and exclaimed—"Pentateuch! Pentateuch! Ogi Humbung! Enoch! Abimelech! Balch! Amekel! Amekel!" thus expressing their utter disbelief in the Mosaic history. Theologians will have to disprove this new fact in science before they can go along.

PROMISING BOYS.—The Providence Journal of this morning alludes to the remarks of Mr. Butler to his former pupils, at Groton, on Wednesday last. Messrs. Abbott, Lawrence, James Walker, Joel Parker, John P. Bigelow, Amos Kendall, Isaac Parker and Samuel Lawrence, and remarks that "few school masters have the privilege of giving good advice to so many promising boys. They may yet, by proper diligence, make quite a figure in the world."

TURN YOUR FENCE POSTS.—It is mentioned as a curious fact that a farmer, in Connecticut, who recently took up a fence after it had been standing fourteen years, found all those posts solid which had been inverted from the way in which they originally grew, while all those which had been set as they grew were rotted off at the bottom. Heads down, therefore, seems a specific against decay.
